Tax rebate claims can be filed now

Sen. Charles D. Lemmond, R-20, is urging older constituents to file their 1989 Property Tax/Rent Rebate claims early so they will receive the first checks mailed in July.

The Property Tax/Rent Rebate Program offers up to a maximum refund of $500 on property tax or rent to qualified applicants.

Applicants who have a household income of less than $15,000 and meet the following age requirements are eligible for the rebate:

- People age 65 or older
- Widows or widowers age 50 or older
- The permanently disabled age 18 or older

Applications are available at any Revenue Department office, Area Agencies on Aging, senior citizen centers, or at Sen. Lemmond's district office located at 701 Market St., Kingston, Pa. 18704, telephone 717-287-0475.

Applications can be received through the mail by calling the Department of Revenue toll free at 1-800-772-5246.

Send The Dallas Post to a friend - it makes a great gift. Call 675-5211 to find our how.
