Pack 155 scouts earn Protestant Religious Awards

Fifteen boys from Cub Scout Pack 155, Trucksville, recently earned their Protestant Religious Awards. Ten boys earned their first award, "God and Me". Through workbooks and projects, the boys learned about their own lives, the life of Jesus, and how God works in their lives.

The following Cubs earned the "God and Me" award: Brian Barrett, B.J. Harbester, Bryan Bachman, Dennis Brown, Joseph Goryl, Chris Nattress, Christopher Schneider, Jonathan Schneider, Chris Wilt and Seth LaJeunesse.

Five Scouts earned their religious award, the "God and Family" award. During their studies, the Scouts explored their Church family, family of friends, community family, family at home, and God as the Father of all. Webelos Jonathan Meehan, Joey Senese, Forrest Cummings, Chad Newell, and Jerry Delescavage all successfully completed the "God and Family" award.

McCarthy winner of radio "Spectacular" promotion

Radio Station WEMR, AM 1460 recently ran a "Spring Spectacular" promotion, with the Grand Prize winner winning an all expense paid trip for two, to Nashville. Five semi finalists were drawn daily, from each participating sponsor's registration box, with the Grand Prize drawn, during a live broadcast at the IGA, in Tunkhannock, on May 26.

The lucky winner was Linda McCarthy of Tunkhannock. Linda and her husband, Phillip, left on June 3 from Avoca Airport to enjoy a week at the Hilton Suites in Brentwood. The McCarthy's toured all Nashville events in a 1990 Cadillac Seville, which was at their disposal all week.

Upon their arrival at the Hilton, some 26 winners and their spouses, from all over the U.S. were treated to a welcome reception, where they became acquainted. Mrs. McCarthy reports that each day, the group met at J.D. Haas Enterprises offices, where they were treated to mini concerts, by popular Nashville artists. Five different country stars were on hand daily, to visit and sign autographs, as well.

The winners group attended fanfare, which is held at the state fairgrounds, annually and attended by some 40,000 people each day. Recording stars set up booths where fans wait in long lines to chat, pose for photographs and get signatures of Nashville's favorites. Linda, as well as the others, received backstage passes and preferred seats to the fanfare concert on Thursday evening.

When not touring country music stars and festivities, the group enjoyed the luxuries of their hotel suite and swimming pool. Linda reports the weather was perfect all week, with absolutely no rain and 90 degree sunshine.

Some of the artists Linda met included J.D. Hart, Doug Stone, Stella Parton, Glen Campbell, Highway 101, and the highlight for Linda was Lionel Cartwright, who appeared at her hotel.

When asked what she thought of the trip, Linda said, "You just wouldn't believe it! One week just wasn't long enough. I hope WEMR radio runs this promotion again next year, so another lucky person may get the chance to go!" The McCarthy's arrived home on June 9.
