Plans nearly complete for 'The Tempest'

The third annual Theatre-On-The-Green performance is now in the final planning stages at College Misericordia. The live, outdoor theatre will present Shakespeare's romantic fantasy, "The Tempest," on July 19, 20, 21 and 22 at 8 p.m. on the north lawn of the Misericordia campus in Dallas. Added to this year's schedule of events is "Shakespeare for Children," a lively hour of excerpts produced especially for children at 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 21. Because the play contains many light-hearted musical selections, it lends itself easily to a child's point of view. The committee is also planning to provide refreshments, clowns and balloons. The Saturday afternoon performance is free and open to the public without reservations. Tickets for the evening performance are $7 for chairs and $3 for bleacher seats, and may be obtained by calling the College Relations office at 674-6285. Shown are members of the committee, from left, Gail Smallwood,

Director of College Relations; Joyce Krivenko, chair of the "Shakespeare for Children" subcommittee; Ola Mae

Schoonover, publicity, College Relations office; Diane Ushinski, chair of the Theatre-On-The-Green committee.
