Staff Writer

Marge Bryant and Jim Yascur of the Back Mountain scored a total of 34 points to win the first half championship in the Tuesday Night Mixed Golf League at the Lehman Golf Club.

Three weeks of play showed Rose Radzinski and Dave Summa in the lead with 14 points followed by Gary and Lisa Baker and Lil and Jack Fedak with 13 points.

After five weeks Jim and Marge were leading with 21 points followed by Gina Chiovera and Dick Fuller with 20 points, Lil and Jack Fedak with 20 and Angie Stets and John Murray with 18.

Bryant and Yascur also had the lowest round in the first half with two under par 32.

Second half play got off to a fast start with Jean and Phil Lipski scoring an eagle on the difficult first hole, the first eagle scored in the history of league play at Lehman. Matching the Lipski's feat two weeks later were Linda and Bob Montville scoring an eagle on the seventh hole.

Three weeks into the second half Jennifer Spencer and Eric Keic were leading with 15 points, Liz and John Humphries with 13 and Dave Guss and Sandra Trocki with 12. The Montvilles also set a record in the second half when they shot 30 for four under par then broke the record the next time out with another low round.
