"The Taming of the Shrew" takes stage at Misericordia

William Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," featuring the National Players', repertory company of the National Theatre, Washington, D.C., will take the stage this fall on the campus of College Misericordia, Friday, September 14, 1990. The free theatre performance at 8 p.m. in Walsh Auditorium, will be held in conjunction with the College's annual Dinner Theatre program sponsored by the Cultural Events Office and the Alumni Association.

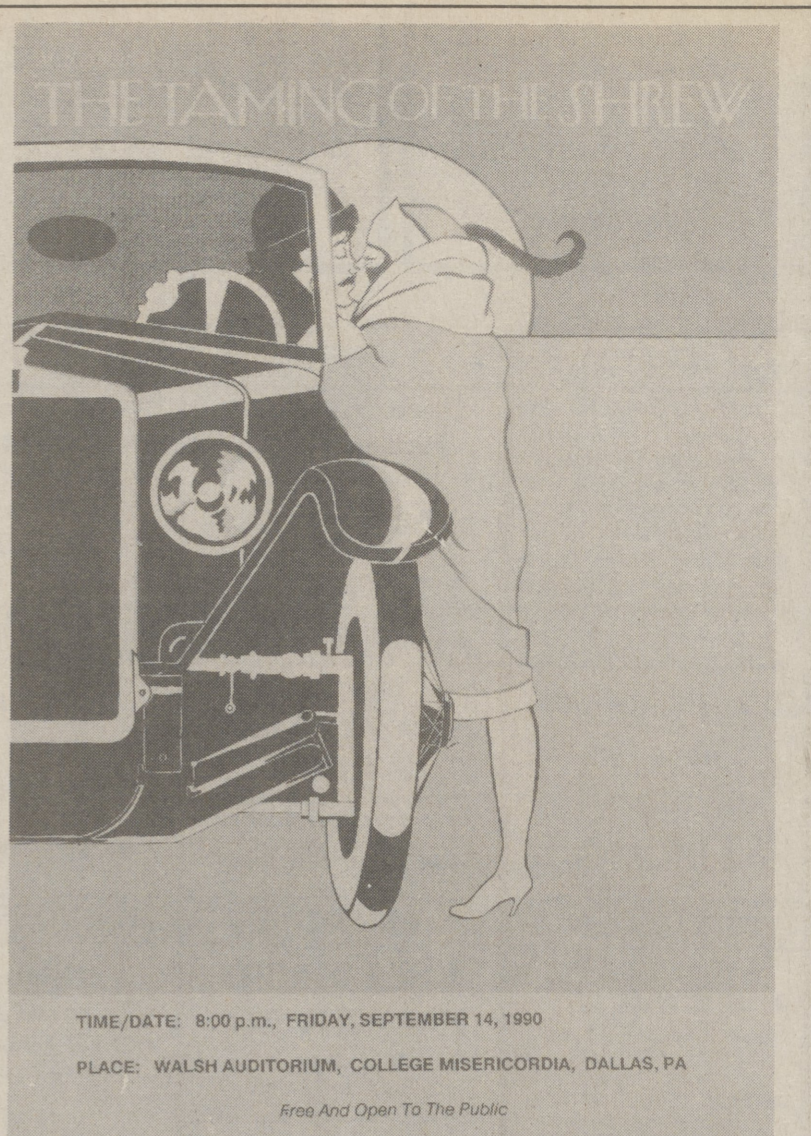

"The Taming of the Shrew," one of Shakespeare's most boisterous comedies, dramatizes the unending battle of the sexes in a gutsy and quirky courtship of the main characters, Kate and Petruchio. In the play, Kate and Petruchio find themselves ensnared in a contest of wills. A favorite for centuries, this Shakespeare comedy continues to capture the imaginations of audiences today.

The production at Misericordia will be directed by William H. Graham, executive producer and James A. Petosa, artistic director of the National Players. Mr. Graham is chairman of the drama department at The Catholic University of America and is president of the Olney Theatre, the State Summer Theatre of Maryland.

In addition to the theatre performance, the College's Alumni Association invites alumni, parents and friends to attend dinner in Merrick Hall on campus prior to the performance. Dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Redwood Room, followed by the theatre performance in Walsh Auditorium. Price per person for dinner is $17.50 with preferred seating during the theatre performance at 8 p.m. For dinner reservations, contact Misericordia's Alumni Relations at (717) 674-6307.

For more information regarding the free theatre performance, contact College Misericordia College Relations at 674-6285.
