It's delicious

Book discussion series at Hayfield

The community is invited to participate in the seventh season of Great Books at Hayfield, an informal discussion series open to all who enjoy reading and discussing great literature. The programs are free and refreshments will be served.

"Daisy Miller" by Henry James, first published in 1878 will be discussed on September 24, 7 p.m. in the Community Center of Hayfield House. Leading the discussion will be Irene Thomas, Administrative Assistant in the Continuing Education Department.

"Daisy Miller," set in Switzerland and Rome, tells the story of a young American girl visiting Europe for the first time. The author presents the conflicts between American innocence and independent behavior and the rigid social conventions of the American colony in Rome, where the moral judgements were based entirely on the "appearance of morality."

"The Cherry Orchard" by Anton Chekhov is the discussion slated for October 22 and on November 19, "Walden" by Henry David Thoreau will be the topic.

For more information on Great Books at Hayfield, call Jean Dietz at 675-9209.
