Wolensky is 'top gun' hoop shooter

ProShot Basketball Camp recently held 'Turn Back the Clock Day' which included a number of the area's top 'Past Prime Players'. Garnering the 'Top Gun Award' was Head Baseball Coach of Dallas High School Jack Wolensky of Trucksville.

Other award winners included Ted Wilson in 'Hose' and Frank DeBona in 'Knockout', both are from Dallas. Winners in HotShot were Paul Jobson, Earl Monk and Mike Barnard. John Szela, former Head Men's Basketball Coach at Misericordia, is the Director of ProShot Basketball Camp.

The day included a variety of special shooting games and featured a traditional camp fire hot dog roast. ProShot Basketball Camp is located at 142 River Road, Thornhurst, PA 18424 in the Pocono Mountains. For more information call (717) 842-7044.

HOT SHOTS - John Szela, Frank DeBona, displays form in 'Knockout' competition, Earl Monk in ProShot Basketball camp competition.

Back Mountain players on LCCC team

Four Dallas area residents are members of the men's baseball team at Luzerne County Community College for the 1990 season.

Bob Ashworth of Shavertown, and Jeff Tinner of Dallas, both graduates of Dallas High School, are members of this year's team. Ashworth pitches for the Minutemen, and also handles the squad's catching duties. Tinner plays the infield, while Keith Schultz, of Shavertown, a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, also handles pitching duties for the Minutemen.

John Bitner, of Dallas, serves as assistant coach of the team. The Minutemen of LCCC will travel to Penn State-Hazleton on Thursday, September 20, for a double-header beginning at 2 p.m. The team is 4-2 this season. Shown are, from left - Schultz; Tinner; Ashworth and Bitner.

Black Knights shut out Wallenpaupack

The Black Knights shut out Wallenpaupack 3-0 Monday led by Eric Stogoski's two goals, one unassisted and one off an assist by Jason McDade. McDade made the third goal off an assist by Mike Sanholtz.

Knight harriers top Hazleton

Charley Jacoby finished first for the Knights cross country team Monday in 18:30, Jim Hutchins placed second and Chris Campbell came in third in their 20-35 win over Hazleton. Bob Ruggere came in sixth and Dan Wilson finished ninth for the Black Knights.

In an exhibition meet, Hazleton's Amy Zehner beat out Michell Sandstrom of Lake-Lehman 25:28 to 26:06.
