Classic airplanes will 'fly-in' Sept. 30

Flying Machines are sure to be the topic for discussion for everyone attending the Fall Fly-In Breakfast at Skyhaven Airport, Tunkhannock, on Sunday, September 30.

Displays of classic airplanes, vintage and antique airplanes highlight the annual fall gathering of pilots at the town's local airport, Route 29, Tunkhannock.

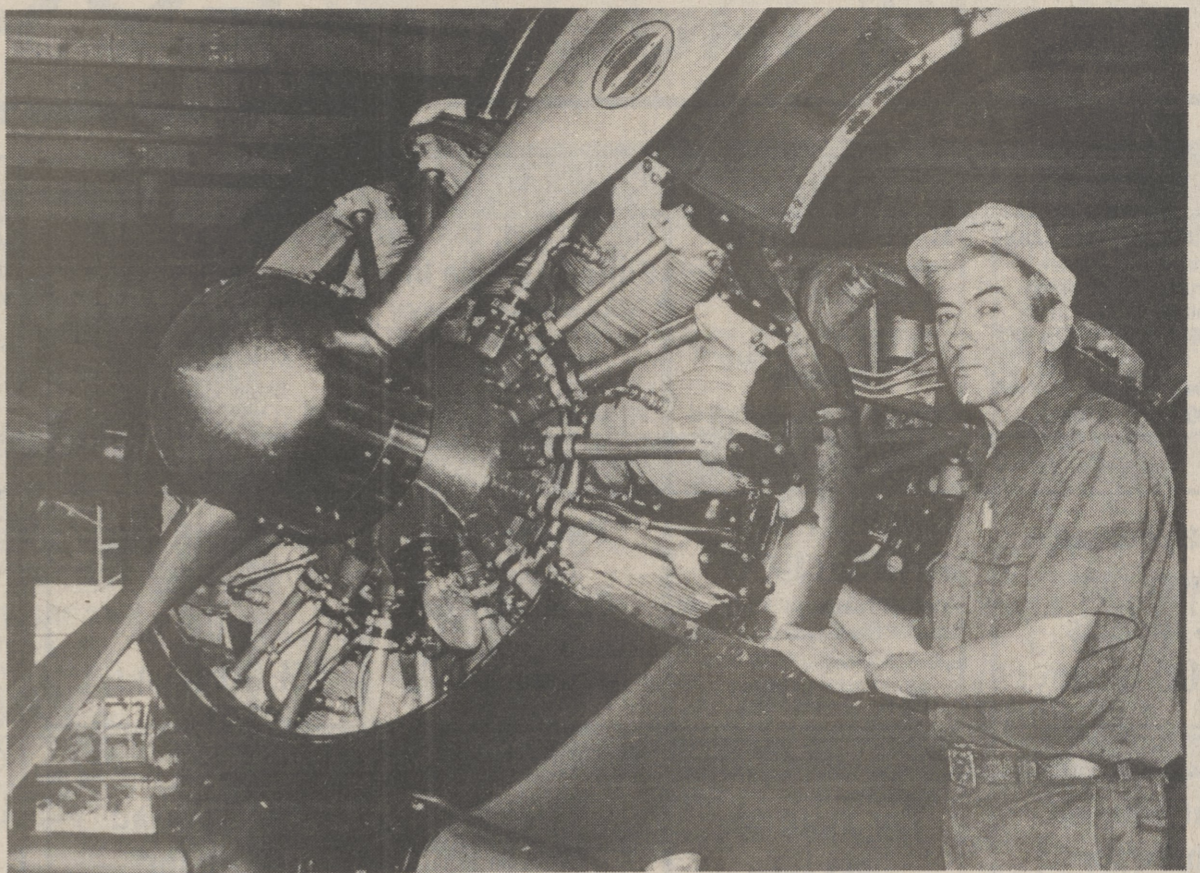

The popular Fly-In/Drive-In Breakfast highlights the day activities with a tasty pancake, ham, egg, and sausage meal served to the public from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the main hanger.

A unique way to enjoy breakfast in the rustic hanger is to arrive early. Cost is $3.50 adults and $2.00 children with all proceeds benefitting the continual upgrading of Skyhaven Airport.

General admission to the airport grounds is free.

Skyhave Airport, located along the scenic Susquehanna River in Wyoming County is one of few privately owned airports in Pennsylvania. Recent renovations have included updated lighting and beacon equipment.

Camping facilities are available by calling Skyhaven Hotline at 836-4800. Flea Market and Craft Sale all day.
