Penn State Alumni Society inducts new officers

The Penn State Wilkes-Barre Alumni Constituent Society recently elected new officers, a new board of directors, and honored outgoing society president JoAnne Post and alumni liaison Marianne Tucker Puhalla for the service to the organization.

James P. Biondo, '78, of Gouldsboro, was named president; John Jablowski, '87, of Ashley, was named vice president; and Jackee Houser, '83, of Lehman, was named secretary/treasurer.

The Board also elected as new members: Belinda Yanchik, '80, of Dallas; Robert Graham, '87, of Mountaintop, Leonard Perkowski,

'86, of Shavertown; and Edward Brennan, '81, of Pottsville. They join currently serving board members Charles Bantell, '79, of Pittston; William Reinhart, '85, of Dallas; Rebecca Sowa, '87, of Nanticoke; David Hoffman, '82, of Harvey's Lake; John Barnes, '88, of Larksville; Robert Bayer, '69, Dallas; Chris Borton, '78, Forty-Fort; Jim Brozema, '76, W. Pittston; Jim Campbell, '72, Dallas; Nicole Strausser Darling, '88, Harveys Lake; Margie Esopi, '79, Dallas; David Fiorini, '89, Trucksville; Joseph Horvath, '81, Edwardsville; Jim Kerns, '78, Edwardsville; Joseph Rymer, '65, Alden; and Susan Stravinsky, '87, Dallas.

Dr. William A. Pearman, acting campus executive officer, was guest speaker at the annual meeting.

Phyllis Belk, director of University relation and Marketing at the campus welcomed the group and presented awards to outgoing board members.

The Campus Society was begun by Post six years ago and was formally organized into an official constituent society of the PennState Alumni Association in 1988. The Society represents the campus' 4000 alumni who are members of the Penn State Alumni Association, and assists the campus through a variety of admissions and recruiting activities, social events, and fund raising projects.

The Board of Directors consists of 23 members and will meet on the second Tuesday of the months November 13, January 8, and March 12. All alumni are invited to the meetings which are normally held in the board room of the Hayfield House at 6 p.m.

The campus Alumni Society is now in the process of planning an Alumni Homecoming that will be held October 27 at the campus. The event is open to all Penn Staters, no matter what campus they attended. "We call it Homecoming because we want all Penn State alums to think of the Wilkes-Barre campus as "home base" in Northeastern Pennsylvania," said Biondo, newly elected president.

The Homecoming day will begin at 11 a.m. Families are invited to bring their own lunch, and entering a tailgate-type dish into a taste-testing contest. The Alumni Society will furnish all beverages and dinner.

Any alumni interested in becoming involved in the Alumni Society or joining the Homecoming activities is invited to contact Joann Marsili, the new Public Information Officer and Alumni Coordinator at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre University Relations Office at 675-9240.

Area students among merit semi-finalists at Seminary

David L. Davies, Academic Dean at Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, announced recently the names of three National Merit semi-finalists and five commended students. Among the Semi-Finalists are Jane Oh, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dong Oh, Dallas, and Matthew Shea, son of Atty. and Mrs. Charles Shea, III, Dallas. Janelle Kellman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ian Kellman, Shavertown, is listed among the commended students.

In the fall of 1989, more than one million students in 19,000 United States secondary schools entered the 1991 merit program by taking the PSAT. Top scorers in every state, representing about one-half of one percent of each state's high school graduating class, are included in the nationwide semi-finalist pool.

Dallas Post/Treat FOOTBALL CONTEST
Win two large pizzas from Treat Pizza

Rules for the football contest
1) Each week in The Dallas Post a football contest entry form will be published.
2) Contestants must circle the team which they think will win in the respective games. If a game ends in a tie that game will not be considered in the contest.
3) All entries must have a winner circled in each of the 10 games on the form.
4) The contestant picking the most games correctly will win two free pizzas from Treat Pizzat in Dallas. In case of a tie in the contest, the tiebreaker will be used. In the tie breaker each contestant must pick the total number of points scored by both teams in the designated game (i.e. If the score of a game was 21-17 the total number of points in the game was 38.) The contestant coming closest to the exact number of points will win the tiebreaker. In the event there is still a tie in the contest, one of the remaining entries will be drawn at random to decide the winner.
5) Only one entry per person each week allowed.
6) All entries must be postmarked or received by the newspaper by 5:00 p.m. on the date designated. Entries can be mailed to The Dallas Post, Box 366, Dallas, PA 18612 or they can be dropped off at the office located in the 309-415 Plaza.
7) All winners will be notified by The Post and their names will be published the following week's paper.
