Dallas stops Coughlin 14-7 Burd scores two T-D's

Dallas sophomore Brian Burd is only 15 years old, but he was as big as any player on the field Friday night as he carried 14 times for more than 100 yards and scored two touchdowns as the Mountaineers beat a much bigger Coughlin team.

"Brian played a terrific game," said Coach Ted Jackson. "And our defense came together and went head-to-head with Coughlin. They are a good team and are big. Our kids were great."

Burd impressed not only Dallas Coach Ted Jackson but the Dallas fans as well, who came to see the Mountaineers go up against the AAA team.

In the opening quarter, Dallas fans' hopes were dashed when the Crusaders Joe O'Donnell ran off tackle, cut back and sprinted 51 yards for a Coughlin lead with less than three minutes off the clock.

Dallas answered in the second quarter when Burd went in from the 17-yard line to even the score at 7-7. Crusader fans appeared shocked when they saw Dallas back in the game. In the second half Coughlin was hurt by turnovers but their luck appeared to turn when Damian Evanko intercepted a Morris pass to stop a Mountaineer drive.

The Crusaders were unable to move the ball against the Mounts and Dallas took over. Burd lost no time putting his team in front when he ran 44 yards to go into the end zone for the score. Chris Williams kicked the extra point and the Mountaineers led 14-7, enough to give them the game.

Burd was playing tailback position, the same position Tony Baldo played before he moved to West Virginia. Friday night he and Justin Reich were filling in for starter Dave Podelh, who was injured. The win moved Dallas to 4-0.

Mount kickers top Seminary 3-2

Dallas Mountaineers scored three goals in the second period to edge Wyoming Seminary who scored one goal in the second and one in the third period before the Mounts held them off.

Erick Ursiak scored the first goal in the second period for Dallas on an assist by Morris, then Morris scored unassisted. Matt Sleighton scored the third goal for the Mountaineers unassisted. The win moved Dallas to 8-1 to continue their first place lead in Division 1-A.

Field hockey shuts out Northwest 3-0

Sue Richardson's two assists played a key role in the Dallas girls field hockey team shutting out Northwest 3-0 Monday at the Dallas field.

Amy Shelley scored the first goal for Dallas off an assist by Richardson in the first half and Karen Wisnieski scored the second goal on an assist by Richardson. Megan Hardisky scored a goal unassisted in the second half.

Dallas outshot Northwest 20-0 on shots on goal and 32-1 on corners.

Dallas harriers split tri-meet

Dallas Mountaineers lost their first meet Monday when Berwick runners placed second, third and fourth to defeat Dallas 23-33 and Bishop O'Reilly 15-50.

Despite the loss, Mountaineer Steve Oliver came in first in 14:28. Matt Samuel placed fifth, Brian Smith seventh, Eric Williams nine, Chuck Clothier 11th and Bill Jones 14th.

The Dallas runners defeated O'Reilly 15-59 to move their record to 7-1.

Oliver, Samuels lead Dallas harriers to wins

Steve Oliver led the Mountaineers to wins over Bishop Hafey and Seton Catholic last Tuesday when he set a course record of 17:48 over Bishop Hafey's course. Oliver led the Mounts to a 16-43 win over Hafey and a 15-48 win over Seton Catholic.

Dallas' Matt Samuels came in second in 19:25, Brian Smith third in 19:26 and Eric Williams fourth in 19:27. A Bishop Hafey runner placed fifth but Mount Bill Jones placed sixth in 20:03. Bishop Hafey took seventh, Eric Mateyka placed eighth, Mount Shawn Miller came in ninth in 20:31 and Bishop Hafey finished in 10th.

In the girls run, Dallas' Gretchen Schuler came in third in 21:35 and Lynn Baluh came in seventh in 28:48 despite the Dallas girls losing by forfeit to both teams due to lack of a full team.

Soccer team shuts out Scranton Prep

Dallas Mountaineers runners moved their record to 7-1 last Tuesday with a 3-0 win over Scranton Prep to continue in first place, one game in front of Bishop Hoban.

Brian Fett scored the first goal for Dallas with a penalty kick and Eric Ursiak picked up his sixth goal of the season with an assist by Andy Flint. Mike Tomaine scored the final goal for Dallas on a penalty kick in the third period.

Zahorsky wins tie breaker and football contest

In came down to the wire in deciding the first winner in the Dallas Post/Treat Pizza football contest. Andy Zahorsky of Dallas was last week's winner after he picked six of the games correctly and was the closest in picking the tie-breaker score.

After all ten of the games were finished Zahorsky and another entrant found themselves in a tie after each correctly picked six of the games. The tie-breaker score of the Chicago Bears/L.A. Raiders game was then used and Zahorsky was the closest.

The games in last week's contest all turned out to be exciting. The Tennessee/Auburn game was not counted in the end because it ended in a tie so the winner actually picked six of nine games correctly, not too bad.

The win will allow Zahorsky to enjoy two pizzas from Treat Pizza in Dallas.

You can take a chance at winning the pizzas by entering our contest. All you have to do to enter is fill out the form on page 11 and pick the winners of the 10 games selected. There are three high school games, three college games and four professional games. If you pick the most correct then you can win two Treat pizzas.

All entries must be postmarked or received by the Dallas Post by 5:00 p.m. on October 5. Entries can be mailed to the Dallas Post, P.O. Box 366, Dallas, PA 18612 or drop them off at our office in the 309-415 Plaza.

Trudy Wandel sparks Knights field hockey

Lake-Lehman senior Trudy Wandel has proved to be a sparkplug for the Knights field hockey this season, drawing accolades from her coach and teammates.

"Trudy has worked hard this summer and is working hard during our season. She plays offensive point and thus feeds the two girls ahead of her. She is strong both offensively and defensively," said Lake-Lehman Coach Jean Lipski about this week's outstanding athlete.

Trudy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wandel of Lake Township, has played field hockey since seventh grade and was a member of the junior high varsity where she played link or midfielder under various coaches.

In senior high Trudy subbed in 10th grade and in her junior year and this year started on the varsity team. During these two years she has scored five goals, four of them this season and has had four assists this year. In past years they are too numerous for her to remember.

A dedicated hockey player, she has attended Lake-Lehman's camp since eighth grade and this summer, Trudy attended the White Mountain Sports Camp at St. Andrew's School in Delaware. Field hockey is her favorite sport, although she also plays on the girls high school soccer team.

This year's team has a 7-0-1 record, having defeated Dallas 1-0 in overtime last Friday.

"I used to roller skate which helped for conditioning," Trudy said. "I did figures and free style and have won more than 100 trophies in plaques counting regional, state and national competition, but I quit about two years ago."

"Our team plays well together because we are like a family. We go out together, eat lunch together and we have good communication among us," Trudy said.

She heard about field hockey when she was in sixth grade and it sounded interesting so she thought she would try it.

"It's fun and our coaches are great and always ready to help us. I like them a lot," Trudy said. "We have fun when we're on the field and when we have fun we win and of course, when we win we have fun."
