Mounts go 4-0 with O'Reilly win

By CHARLOT M. DENMON

Brian Burd proved his runs against Coughlin the previous week were not just luck when he scored three touchdowns for the Dallas Mountaineers Saturday against Bishop O'Reilly. The sophomore scored on runs of four, five and three yards for touchdowns and carried the ball 14 times for 80 yards.

"We were happy about the big win," said Dallas coach Ted Jackson. "We were able to go ahead early in the game which gave us the opportunity to play our younger kids. Most of the second half we played our sophomores, most of them our third string."

A key play early in the opening period was quarterback John Morris' 25-yard pass to Ray Russin. The drive ended with Burd going in from the four-yard line for the first touchdown.

In addition to Burd's three touchdowns, Chris Ruth scored on a 25 yard pass, and Eric Paczewski went in from the four yard line for a score. Kicker Chris Williams went 5-for-5 on extra points to push his record this season to 12-for-12.

"We play Crestwood at home this Saturday and we're worried about the Comets. They're the best offensive team we have played all year. They have good receivers and a good quarterback in Paul Gresh. It will be tough to stop them. We will get points on the board but we will have to stop them from getting them," Jackson said.
