Police report

DALLAS BOROUGH HIT-RUN ACCIDENT AT COMMONWEALTH

Patrolman James J. Drury was dispatched to a hit and run accident where he found Maryann Stchur, Wilkes-Barre, who said her 1985 Honda was parked legally in a parking space in the Commonwealth Parking lot. She said she parked her car at 6:30 a.m. and did not leave the building until 5 p.m. when she found that an unidentified car backing into the parking space alongside hers struck the left fender of the Honda. Investigation is continuing.

SCHOOL BUS GRAZES UPS TRUCK

Patrolman James J. Drury was called to the scene of an accident on Church Street where a Dallas school bus driven by Tammy Mae Concert of Harveys Lake, driving the bus south on Church Street with students in the bus struck the right side of a UPS truck legally parked facing north in a parking area alongside Church Street, breaking and knocking off the truck's side view mirror.

Concert told police she thought she was far enough away from the truck but after she struck the mirror she said she contacted the bus base at the school and she was told to continue on with dropping off of school students.

John J. Rytell, 3rd, Wilkes-Barre said he told the operator of the bus to pull over and thought she was but then she went on.

Police were notified and Concert was returned to the scene of the accident.

ITEMS STOLEN FROM HOME

Officer Dennis Dobinick was dispatched to the home of Thelma Price, 97 Elizabeth St., Dallas, where Price reported the theft of household items, jewelry and cash. Price gave the officer a name of a person she suspected and the investigation is continuing.

ROCK THROWN THROUGH CAR WINDOW

Dallas Borough police are investigating a case of vandalism reported by a Kellie A. Davis, who while traveling south on Route 415 had a rock thrown through the windshield of her 1988 Oldsmobile in the vicinity of the Pizza Hut.

Davis said she turned her car around and saw three juveniles running into the woods. Patrolman James J. Drury caught the juveniles, notified their parents, and restitution was made to the victim.

DALLAS TOWNSHIP THEFT AT SPORTING GOODS STORE

Dallas Township police investigated a theft, Oct. 16, at Back Mountain Sporting Goods Store, where someone entered with a key and took an undetermined number of baseball and football trading cards, the value not yet known. Investigation is continuing.

VANDALISM AT TWO SEPARATE LOCATIONS

Dallas Township police were dispatched to Country Club Apartments and also to 2 Crestview Drive, Dallas, where investigation revealed cases of criminal mischief that occurred between Oct. 13 and Oct. 14. Three cars at the Country Club Apartments were damaged and hood and trunk emblems removed from them. Damage was also done to the car at Crestview Drive, Shrine Acres and hood and trunk emblems removed. Investigation is continuing.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP CAR STRIKES POLE

Aron W. Lupinsky, Wyoming, Oct. 13, was traveling south on Route 309, when he told police his car started to hydroplane and he lost control and the car struck a pole at the entrance of the Texaco Station.

MAN INJURED IN ONE CAR ACCIDENT

Patrolman Michael Moravec was dispatched to an accident at Dug Hill and Bunker Hill Roads where he found George Siegel, Trucksville, trapped in his 1973 Buick and passerby trying to give first aid to Siegel through the car window. The ambulance, rescue unit, Medic Unit and fire department were dispatched to the scene and the rescue unit personnel extricated Siegel who was admitted to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Investigation revealed that Siegel was traveling south on Dug Road at a high rate of speed and failed to negotiate a left curve in the road at the intersection of Bunker Hill Road and continued straight through the curve and struck a large tree head-on then came to rest over a small embankment.

DUI ARREST

Kingston Township Patrolman Robert Weiss arrested Scott H. Chopick, 8 Knob Hill, Trucksville for driving under the influence and criminal mischief, Oct. 17, 10:47 p.m., in the area of Back Mountain Shopping Center.
