Crispell family holds 77th annual reunion

The 77th Annual Reunion of the Crispell Family (Pennsylvania Branch) was held recently at Dymond Grove, Noxen, with approximately 60 attending. The meeting was opened with a beautiful prayer by Clarence Shupp, and Rev. Gilbert Dutton of the Bowman's Creek Free Methodist Church gave an inspirational talk on the importance of families, citing the history of families as recorded in the Bible. President Albert Crispell presided at the business meeting. Jack Sidorek, president of the National Crispell Family Association, reported on the history of Antoine Crispell who in 1660, along with 11 other patentees, founded the village of New Paltz, New York and later resided in Kingston, New York.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Albert

Crispell, president; Rev. Theodore Hubbard, vice president; Lois Post, secretary; Minnie Sidorek, treasurer. The family is planning a new supplement to the Family Genealogy and History, and it was suggested that memorial contributions be accepted to help defray the publishing costs. The following Family History Committee was appointed: Lois Post, chairperson; John Sidorek, Ella Cobleigh, Earl Crispell, Lela Crispell Sickler, Albert Crispell. President Albert Crispell reappointed the following committees for next year's reunion, which will be held on Saturday, Aug. 10, 1991 at Dymond Grove, Noxen: games, Linda Korbel; gifts, Rachel Crispell; nominating committee: Ella Cobleigh and Letha Schenck.

Largest family present was the family of Iva Hoover; couple married the longest, Earl and Helen Crispell, 65 years; couple most recently married, Brenda and Jim Crispell, 2 years; oldest man present, Clarence Shupp, 89 years; oldest woman present, Iva Hoover, 88 years; youngest child, Noel Sidorek, 9 months; person traveling the farthest, June Vosburg, from Georgia. June Vosburg and Betty Strzelczyk led the group in singing hymns.

MacDonald Art Gallery plans New York City museum trip

Fascinating Mayan sculpture, intricate miniature paintings, and the symmetry of Arnold Schwarzenegger's muscles will be among the attractions of a New York City Museum Trip on Saturday, Nov. 24, sponsored by the MacDonald Art Gallery at College Misericordia.

The cost of the trip is $25 for Gallery members and $27 for non-Gallery members and includes bus fare only. Complete itinerary will be provided.

Featured exhibitions include collections of 30 centuries of Mexican art, miniature paintings by American artists, and quilts, all at the Metropolitan Museum of Art; works of art in new materials at the Cooper Hewitt Museum; and the fashion photography of Man Ray and a photographic study of Arnold Schwarzenegger at the International Center of Photography.

Seating for this bus trip will be limited, so those interesting in the trip are urged to make reservations early. The bus will leave the Martz Wilkes-Barre terminal at 7 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 24.

Make checks payable to MacDonald Art Gallery, c/o Angela Kelly, College Misericordia, Dallas, PA 18612. Checks serve as reservations. For more information call the MacDonald Art Gallery during Gallery hours at 674-6285.
