Post Office lists rules for Mideast mail

Thousands of pounds of letters and packages per day are now being sent to service men and women deployed to Operation Desert Shield.

The Postal Service has some helpful hints for Americans mailing letters, parcels or packages to military personnel stationed in Saudi Arabia. By following these guidelines, packages will arrive promptly and efficiently.

- Use a sturdy carton, large enough to accommodate the contents.

- Use some form of cushioning to protect the articles inside. Seal the parcel securely. Use pressure-sensitive tape. Avoid using brown wrapping paper, cord or string on the outside.

- Print the service member's name and address on the lower right portion of the package on one side only. It should include the service member's name, rank and service number, military organization or unit, and the APO/FPO address.

- Put your return address in the upper left hand corner of the package. Also, include your return address on a piece of paper on the inside of the package.

- Remember the hot temperatures and heat of the Saudi Arabian climate when considering what to send to the troops there. Temperatures in the desert exceed 100 degrees regularly.

- Make sure to attach a parcel post customs declaration form (Form 2966-A, available at local post offices) on all your packages.

- The fastest way for packages to get there is Priority or First-Class Mail which allows for a 5-10 day delivery.

- Normal U.S. domestic postage applies for all the mail. For example, it costs 25 cents to mail a First-Class letter (one ounce), and 15 cents to mail a postcard. It costs $2.40 to send a two-pound package there at the First-Class/Priority Mail rate.

- A number of mailing restrictions still remain in effect. However, the Saudi Arabian government has been very accommodating to American customs and traditions.

- Saudia Arabian customs restrictions placed on mail going to the troops include: no pictures of nude or semi-nude persons, no pornography or sexual items, no pork or pork by-products, no alcohol, no religious materials contrary to the Islamic Faith, no unauthorized political material (such as Communist material) and no firearms.

- You can send Bibles and other religious articles there on an individual basis. Christmas cards and other cards for religious holidays are also acceptable.

- There were false reports that mail having the U.S. flag as postage was not allowed by Saudi officials. All U.S. postage is acceptable.

Country 'voices' get together

Recently, W.D.L.S. Morning drive personality, Jeff Gordon, had the privilege of introducing on stage country music star Vern Gosdin. Gosdin performed before a crowd at the Luzerne County Fall Fair.

After his performance, Gosdin invited Jeff and his family into his tour bus for an interview and photos. According to the "Voice" of W.D.L.S., the "Voice" of country music is a fabulous entertainer and a very friendly down home type of guy."
