It was a stellar season for these Lake-Lehman athletes

By CHARLOT M. DENMON

Lake-Lehman High School varsity teams had many outstanding athletes this fall, making it difficult to select individuals to whom to pay tribute at the end of the season. This week we honor all of the fall athletes by selecting a representative from each sport.

CATHY LONG GAVE HER BEST IN VOLLEYBALL

Cathy Long, captain of this year's girls volleyball team is an outstanding example of the team members. A dedicated player, she gave her best in each game the girls played this season and with her co-captain Melanie Raspen led the team into the playoffs where they went down to defeat to the strong Tunkhannock team in the semifinals.

A senior, Cathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Long of Sweet Valley. She lettered on the varsity team for four years. She also played volleyball in junior high where she discovered it was a fun game as well as presenting a challenge.

Cathy played in the back row for her four years in senior high and sometimes played hitter. There were very few games that she did not make points for the team but she has no idea how many she had throughout her high school year.

"I never thought it was important how many points I made," said Cathy. "But just tried to play my best every game to help the team win. Our coach always emphasized that it took a team effort to win, not just one star."

Cathy also likes soccer and played on last year's first high school girls soccer team and plans to go out for the team again this season.

A 'B' average student, she plans to attend Susquehanna University and major in secondary education with her field in art.

BECKY JAMES STOPPED OPPOSING SHOTS ALL SEASON

Senior Becky James, daughter of Mrs. Polly James of Huntsville, is also an outstanding athlete and lettered for four years for the Lady Knights field hockey team which finished in second place this year after battling for first the entire season.

Becky is typical of the girls on the team whose goal was to win while having fun.

"We were like a family on and off the field," said Becky. "We would go out together, stop in to eat as a group, and had a great time with our coaches, who kept reminding us that it was team effort that counted," she says.

Becky played goalie for four years on the team and in her senior year had more than 100 saves which was a key role in the Knights winning record. Because of her ability, three or four of the Lady Knights games went into overtime and ended in a tie. She also played hockey in junior high, in seventh grade as halfback and in eighth as goalie.

She also likes to play soccer and played on last year's varsity team. Becky likes to ski in her leisure time during the winter. A 'B' average student she plans to attend college and major in pharmacy.

GREG DOBASH DID HIS PART FOR SOCCER

Junior Greg Dobash is also a goalie but for the Black Knights soccer team. The son of Mrs. Susan Dobash of Harveys Lake, Greg has played soccer since he was in kindergarten. Since playing in the goaltender position on the varsity team for three years, he has enjoyed the game immensely.

"I like the challenge it presents as well as the great feeling you get when you make a big save which puts you in the spotlight. I also like being able to wear 'funky' clothes. You don't have to wear regular uniforms so you can look different than anyone else," Greg said.

Greg did not have a complete record of his saves but knew he had 10 in the Dallas playoff game and about 17 in the Coughlin game. He plays soccer year-round, usually on about five teams each year. He also helps with the girls soccer team at the high school.

Greg also has a brown belt in karate but had to quit taking lessons when he was a freshman. He says he will go back to karate when he has more time.

"My two favorite saves were the one against Seton Catholic and the power dive save in the last Dallas game," Greg said.

Greg is an honor student the high school.

CHARLEY JACOBY LED CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Sophomore Charley Jacoby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Jacoby of Sweet Valley, was the only Knight to qualify for the state competition in cross-country this year in the District 2 competition. He also placed first for the Knights in numerous meets throughout the season and always placed in the top five.

He played a key role in the Knights wins this past season after one of their experienced runners was injured. It was Charley's second year as a member of the cross-country team.

Charley went out for cross-country in his freshman year to help him keep in condition for wrestling which is his favorite sport and one in which he has excelled since in the elementary grades.

"The state cross-country competition was a great learning experience," said Charlie. "After wres-ting season, I plan to go out for the track and field team in the spring. I enjoyed cross-country. Once you get into running it is fun and does a lot for you."

Since Charley is only a sophomore, Back Mountain fans can expect to hear more about his records in the future.

SAM GORGONE: KEY TO WINNING SEASON

Black Knight quarterback Sam Gorgone led the team to its finest record in years and for only the second time in the 1980's aided them in taking the Old Shoe from the Dallas Mountaineers.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gorgone of Shavertown, Sam transferred from Dallas to Lake-Lehman when his dad became head coach there.

During his senior year Sam picked up approximately 600 yards in passing, throwing the ball about 70 times. He also had 350 yards in rushing and made eight touch-down passes.

"I had hoped to go over 1,000 yards this year," said Sam. "But we had such an excellent rushing team, there wasn't as much opportunity to pass."

Sam played three years on the senior high team, one year in junior high and one year in mini-football where he played running back for half a season. The rest of the time he played quarterback.

During his sophomore year, Sam was backup quarterback to Len Annetta, but played varsity quarterback in his junior and senior year, gaining a total of 1200 yards for the two seasons.

"It was not as difficult playing for my dad," Sam said. "I enjoyed it. My dad never showed favoritism. In fact he worked me harder to relieve the pressure."

Sam also plays baseball where he pitches and plays in the infield. He has played baseball since he played T-Ball at the age of seven.

He is on the school newspaper staff and enjoys writing sports items for the school paper. An honor student, he plans to attend college but not sure where and major in communications, his specialty in broadcasting.

Sam became interested in football through his dad when his dad accepted the coaching position at Lake-Lehman and Sam transferred to Lake-Lehman. He also played soccer when he was in the elementary grades.
