Cross country runners, cheerleaders honored by Dallas School Board

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas School Board presented plaques to cross country runners Steve Oliver and Gretchen Schuler at its meeting Dec. 10, and citations to the Dallas Cheerleaders.

President John Litz presented a plaque to Oliver for his outstanding performance throughout the cross-country season during which he took the gold medal in the District 2 competition, the gold medal in the PIAA State Championships, and was named All-American in the Kinney National Cross Country Championships in San Diego.

President Litz also presented a plaque to Senior Gretchen Schuler who was the first cross country runner from Dallas to qualify for the PIAA State Championships for four consecutive years.

He also presented citations to the Dallas cheerleaders for winning the Eastern Pennsylvania Regional Grand Championship competition which qualified them to enter the UCA National High School Championship Finals in Orlando, Florida. The cheerleaders were represented at the board meeting by Mrs. Evan Bonawitz, advisor; Anne Marie Danna, assistant advisor; Terri Phillips and Jessica Oravitz, cheerleaders.

In other business, Pasonic Engineer officials presented drawings of a new maintenance building now approved by the Department of Labor and Industry to the board members. The drawings can now be sent in to the Department of Education for approval.

Board members will study the estimated cost of a new maintenance and central supply building and if they determine the cost feasible, will put it out for bid once approved by the Department of Education. The Pasonic Engineers made available five alternatives to the proposed building for the benefit of the school board, which plans to act on the proposal at the January meeting.

In other business the board

Police report

DALLAS TOWNSHIP DRIVER CHASED, CHARGED WITH DUI

Joseph Platt, driver of a vehicle driving south on Route 309, in an erratic manner, Nov. 30, was arrested for driving under the influence by Patrolman Truman Brand, after Platt attempted to flee from the police. Dallas Township, Dallas Borough and Kingston Township patrolmen pursued Platt and blocks were set up by the Kingston, Forty Fort and Wilkes-Barre police departments. Platt's vehicle was stopped in Luzerne in front of Bargains Galore and when Platt was removed from the car, the vehicle was still in drive and struck the door of an unoccupied Dallas Township Police Car.

THEFT AT COLLEGE BOOKSTORE

Patrolman Wayman Miers was dispatched Dec. 6 to Merrick Hall, College Misericordia, where book store manager Diane Morreale reported that one or more individuals entered the book store supply room through the ceiling above the pay telephones in the hall next to the book store. While in the store mostly clothing was removed from the shelves plus other items, a list of which will be given to the police. Police are continuing the investigation.

TIRE PUNCTURED

Frank Lombardi of Country Club Apartments, Route 309, Dallas, reported that Dec. 5, at approximately 11 p.m., someone punctured the spare tire on the back of his 1991 Blazer.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP EIGHT CHARGED WITH UNDERAGE DRINKING

Patrolmen Robert Weiss and Charles Rauschkalb on Dec. 2, cited eight young men and women for underage possession of beer at 196 Meadowcrest Drive, Trucksville. They will be summoned to appear before the District Magistrate Earl Gregory.

The individuals cited were under 21 years of age but over 18 years of age. They were Traci Sue Coulter, David W. Morris, Dale J. Morris, Trucksville; Heather Williams, Kingston; Jonathan Ursiak, Dallas; Mattie Lee Austin, Kingston; Michael Kisankowski, Larksville and Michael John Brogan, Exeter.

ICE CAUSES ONE-CAR ACCIDENT

Patrolman Michael Moravec, Dec. 5, came upon an accident on Mount Olivet Road, about 9:40 a.m. about about 100 feet west of the intersection with Green Road, RD Wyoming, Kingston Township. No one was at the scene of the accident but Moravec learned the identity of the owner of the Volkswagen, who came to the scene and requested a tow truck. The driver said he was heading east on the road and the road was very slippery. He said when he came down hill on Mount Olivet Road his car began to slide and went into a bank damaging the front end.

DUI CHARGE

Patrolman Robert Weiss, Dec. 5, cited Franz Funke, 192 Lehman Ave., Dallas, for driving under the influence, when Funke was driving north in the southbound lane of Route 309 near the Back Mountain Shopping Center, Shavertown. Funke will appear before District Magistrate Earl Gregory.
