Donkey basketball game to be played at Lake-Lehman

At Lake-Lehman Senior High School America's craziest and most unpredictable sport "Donkey Basketball" will be featured at the high school gym, at 7:30 p.m., Friday, February 8. The seniors will ride against the teachers. At 6:30 the senior boys will play the senior girls in a basketball game. There will be plenty of laughs for the whole family during the fun-filled evening.

You haven't witnessed basketball until you have seen it played on donkeys. Tickets, at $3.00 each, are available from members of the senior class, in the high school office, or at the door.

Dallas Juniors help at soup kitchen

Open house at Misericordia February 9

High school students who are thinking about going to college but are unsure about which one to attend, are invited to visit College Misericordia in Dallas during its Winter Open House on Saturday, Feb. 9.

The Open House gives students and their families an opportunity to tour the campus, meet with college students, faculty and administration, and attend information sessions on programs of study, financial aid, student services and other topics. Activities begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m.

College Misericordia is a private, four-year, co-educational liberal arts-based college located near Wilkes-Barre. Recently Money Magazine's Annual Guide to American Colleges and Universities ranked Misericordia in the top 100 private colleges and universities in the United States. Sponsored by the Religious Sisters of Mercy and founded in 1924, Misericordia offers 19 undergraduate programs in the arts and sciences as well as four graduate programs.

Notes from school

Area students accepted to health schools

Seventy four University of Scranton graduates entered health-related professional schools this fall, including 55 who were accepted to American medical schools.

Those attending medical school received a total of 111 acceptances to 23 different institutions, according to Joseph T. Evans, Ph.D., professor of biology and director of placement in medical and health-related professional schools.

In addition to this year's medical school students, 11 students were accepted to dental schools, three to optometry schools, another three to chiropractic schools, one to podiatry school and another to a school of pharmacy.

Among Back Mountain students accepted are: Scott Giberson, West Wyoming, Temple College of Pharmacy; Rayford Petroski, Georgetown Medical School and Michele Lamoreux, New York University School of Medicine, both from Dallas; Simon Russin, Shavertown, Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Mooney accepted to Berklee College

Berklee College of Music has accepted Michael J.D. Mooney, son of Joseph and Mary Ellen Mooney of Dallas, in its Freshman Class for the Fall semester 1991. In addition to gaining a solid theoretic background, Mooney's curriculum will include the unique opportunity to study and perform in every phase of the vast musical industry. Students choose courses ranging from instrument improvisation and recording studio techniques to vocal arranging and jazz history.

Mathers named to President's List

Stephen N. Mathers, Trucksville was named to the fall semester President's List of students who have compiled a quality point index, of 3.50 or higher, at the Johnson Technical Institute, Scranton.

Clark makes Lycoming Dean's List

Shawn G. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Clark of Dallas, was among the 146 students named to the Dean's List at Lycoming College for the Fall semester of the 1990-91 academic year.

Sisters named to Dean's List at Bloomsburg

Dawn and Dena Rebennack, daughters of Ted and Ruthellen Rebennack, Shavertown, both achieved Dean's List status for the Fall 1990 semester at Bloomsburg University.

Dawn is in the graduate program and is working towards her masters degree in behavior disorders and earned a GPA of 3.50.

Dena is in the pre-occupational therapy program and earned a GPA of 3.77. She will be transferring to Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, in the Fall of 1991 to complete her studies in the Occupational Therapy Program.
