Knight wrestlers win two, face tough week

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Lake-Lehman Knights defeated the Dallas grapplers 64-3 Saturday night to run their record to 5-0 and continue tied with Wyoming Valley West in the West Division of the wrestling conference.

Mountaineer Eric Williams was the lone Dallas win decisioning Jesse Sorber 11-6 at 112.

Charlie Jacoby (135) and Mike Geurin (171) won on technical falls and Dave Konopke (140) won on a 7-0 decision.

In Wednesday night's match with Canton Rosencrans pinned Canton's heavyweight Cory Bobbins in 1:29 to clinch a 31-25 victory for the Knights. The Knights had to come from behind in the exhibition match to take the win and Terry Martin (171) decisioned Mark Bailey 14-7 and Mike Geurin took a major 15-4 decision from Lyle Wesneski to tie the meet at 25-25 going into the final bout which Rosencrans won by pinning his opponent.

The Knights meet Coughlin at home Wednesday night and travel to Wyoming Valley West Saturday night. Both Coughlin and Valley West are holding 5-0 records.

Dallas nearly stops GAR win streak

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

The Dallas Mountaineers nearly put an end to GAR's 77 game league winning streak Friday night, pulling ahead with three minutes to go after clawing back from an 11 point halftime deficit.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game, many fans began to leave the game when one of the Dallas scoreboards showed a 50-45 lead for the Mounds. But that clock was in error, and Dallas held only a one-point lead at that point.

GAR's junior point guard Mike Pavloski saved the game by scoring seven of his 12 points in the final two minutes of the game to give the Grenadiers a 55-50 win. Pavloski turned on the scoring just in time as GAR's star Bob Sura fouled out with just over a minute left in the game after scoring a game-high 26 points.

The win gave GAR a 4-0 record in the second half of Division II while the Mountaineers moved to 3-1. GAR is the only team to defeat the Mounds this season, having taken a win during the first half of the season.

While GAR missed Sura in the final minutes, Dallas was hurt when Jeremiah Van Orden left the game near the end of the first quarter. Van Orden's absence gave the GAR defense a boost and their aggressive play shut down Dallas in the fourth quarter.

Damon Lisnow gave the Mountaineers the lead in the final period when he scored off a pass from Ray Russin. Lisnow then fouled out with 13 points, scoring 10 rebounds and blocking six shots. Russin had 17 points and five rebounds for the Mountaineers and Mark Medura had 10.

Coach Paul Brown said he was pleased with the team's defensive game in the first half.

"Our kids put the Grenadiers out of sync on the offense. They weren't getting good first shots but they (the Grenadiers) were controlling the boards. We were letting them get the second and third shots which hurt us," Brown said.

Earlier in the week, the Mountaineers took a 69-53 win from Northwest Area Tuesday night led by Damon Lisnow who scored a game-high 24 points on the Mountaineers floor.

Mark Medura hit 17 points for Dallas and Ray Russin added 14. Russin tossed in two three-point goals and Medura put in three three-pointers for the Mountaineers.

This week Dallas will play Wyoming Seminary away Tuesday and host Lake-Lehman at home Thursday night.

Back Mountain Baseball last signup is Saturday

Saturday, February 9 is the final signup day for this year's Back Mountain Baseball season. Registration will be held at the Shavertown United Methodist Church on Pioneer Avenue in Shavertown from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. that day.

League rules state that anyone who has not signed up by February 9 will not be able to play this season. There can be no exceptions to that rule.

Players may sign up for T-ball, Little League, 13-year-old Teeners, Teeners and Girls Softball. For the first time, there will be a 16-18 year old girls softball league this year. More than 800 players are expected to play in the various leagues this year.

John Bittner, president of the 13-year-old Teener league asks that anyone who wishes to play in any league but cannot make it to the registration February 9 call him at 829-6664 days or 675-1244 evenings or weekends to make other arrangements.

Lady Mounts fall to GAR

The GAR girls had little trouble defeating the Lady Mounts Thursday night as Dallas played without their leading scorer Tara Lisnow. Tina Hite scored 20 points for the Dallas team but without Lisnow the girls were unable to overcome the scoring of the Grenadiers Yolanda Harris and Kelly Hopkins.

Harris had a game-high total of 23 points and Hopkins tossed in 19 as the Grenadiers won 65-39. Cassandra Watson also gave the Grenadiers 11 points to help the Grenadiers go in front 28-11 in the first half and never fall back the rest of the way.

The Dallas girls will host Wyoming Seminary Monday night, travel to Lake-Lehman Thursday night and play at Seton Catholic Saturday night.

Lady Knights roar back for win

Wyoming Seminary was leading the Lake-Lehman girls 32-30 Thursday night on the Lady Black Knights court until the local girls rallied in the fourth period to outscore the Blue Knights 21-12 and pick up a 51-44 win.

The Black Knights used a balanced team effort in the final period with Jen Smith and Heidi Wenrich picking up 12 and 11 points for the Black Knights in the second half.

Alyson Davis threw in 14 points in the first half to keep her team nearly even at halftime.

The Black Knights went 11-for-14 from the foul line which gave them the winning edge and a 3-1 record in the second half.

Comeback helps Dallas girlsdown Seminary

Dallas girls ran their second half record to 2-2 Monday night when they overcame Wyoming Seminary 38-29 behind Tara Lisnow's double-figure shooting.

Scoring was low by both teams in the first half with a 14-14 tie at halftime.

In the opening minutes of the third period Seminary scored six points to go in front 20-14. The Lady Mountaineers switched to a man-to-man defense and proceeded to score nine consecutive points behind Kathy Welkey who put in six points to put the Dallas girls in front 23-20.

Lisnow scored 16 points in the second half and Wendy Cave had 10 points, eight of them in the first half.

Queenswomen roll past Lady Knights 72-47

Bishop O'Reilly jumped out to an early lead over the Lady Knights Monday night to scoring 43 points in the first half to go ahead 43-21 at halftime.

The Queenswomen were led by Lee Ann Azarewicz's 20 points and Renee Chimock's 17 with Azarewicz tossing in two three-pointers. Renee Mullery also added 11 points to O'Reilly's score.

The Lady Knights high scorers were Cherub Honeywell with 16 points and Jennifer Smith with 10. Alyson Davis, the Knights leading scorer was out of the lineup due to an injury. The loss dropped the Lady Knights to 3-2.
