

SCHOOL

Lehman childhood program to focus on health and nutrition

The fourth installment of Lake-Lehman's Early Childhood/Pre-School Program is scheduled for February 26, 27 and 28, and will feature "Nutrition and Health Awareness".

Miss Lynn Evans, High School Home Economics Teacher, will present the program segment concerning proper nutrition practice.

The health awareness section of this program will be conducted by our School Nurse, Mrs. Helen Maher-Evans. Topics included will be medication policy, health room procedures and policies, vaccination record policies, and general school playground and recess rules.

The schedule for this pre-school presentation is as follows:

Ross Elementary School - Tuesday, February 26, 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
Lake-Noxen Elementary School

- Wednesday, February 27, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

Lehman-Jackson Elementary School - Thursday, February 28, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

This program is intended for four-year-olds only. It is kindly requested that you not bring younger brothers and sisters unless there is no alternative. Also, four-year-olds should be encouraged to attend planned activities without parents.

Please register for this fourth presentation by simply calling the neighboring elementary school of office and letting us know how many adults and four-year-old children will be attending. Telephone numbers are as follows: Ross Elementary School, 477-5050 or 675-1129; Lake-Noxen Elementary School, 639-1129; Lehman-Jackson Elementary School, 675-2165.

Shea named Good Citizen

Matthew Shea, son of Atty. and Mrs. Charles Shea, III, Dallas, has recently been named the D.A.R. Good Citizen for the year at Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston. Shea was selected by the Wyoming Seminary faculty as the student who best exemplifies outstanding qualities of Leadership, Dependability, Service and Patriotism.

He has received numerous awards at Seminary, including the Trustee Achievement Scholarship, the Kingswood Scholarship, and was a National Merit Semi-Finalist. Shea has also achieved Dean's List High Honors throughout his high school career.

Active in sports, he played lacrosse and soccer, and is a volunteer with Teens Do Care.

Sixth graders named floor hockey champs

Jenkins' Jumping Jacks, from the Dallas Middle School, recently became the sixth grade intramural floor hockey champions. The victors received a plaque recognizing their achievement from Mrs. Ann Seitz, director of intramurals. Pictured from left, first row, Chris Micle, Keith Rondinella; second row, Jeff Harger, Darren Fleten, Alison Ash, Ian Linsinbigler, Fran Brown; third row, Ben Smith, George Layaou, Pat Casey, Eric Noderer, Ned Walsh.

Notes from school

Lake-Lehman band sponsors meet Feb. 19

The monthly meeting of the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors Association will meet Tuesday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lake-Lehman High School.

Harvey named to Who's Who

Randi A. Harvey, Dallas, is one of 22 students from Keystone Junior College who have been selected as outstanding leaders by "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" for 1991, according to Beakie Powell, Associate Director, National Office.

According to Powell, students have been selected on the basis of their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success.

Area athletes named to Wilkes honor roll

Darren Michael of Dallas and Matt Reinert of Shavertown were among 76 student-athletes that were recently named to the school's Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Honor Roll for the fall 1990 semester. To be named to the honor roll, an athlete had to have a 3.0 GPA or better for the semester that his or her sport was in.

Both Michael and Reinert attained a perfect 4.0 GPA and were named to the college's Dean's List for that semester. The 76 athletes named is the most in the three years that the Wilkes Athletic Department has been sponsoring the honor roll.

Steinkirchner graduates from Mansfield

A total of 134 degrees were awarded during Mansfield University's 125th Commencement Ceremonies in December 1990. A graduating class of 119 received bachelor's degrees, in addition to 15 master's degrees awarded.

The group of students receiving bachelor's degrees included Mark R. Steinkirchner of Dallas who received a degree in business administration.

Area students receive degrees at Wilkes

Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, President of Wilkes University, recently awarded undergraduate degrees to 62 students and masters degrees to 42 graduate students, at the University's Winter Commencement.

Local graduates include: Michael Pelleschi of Dallas, Mary M. Gillis, J. David Orrson and Brent Hewitt Bernstein, all of Shavertown.

Janosik receives degree at James Madison

Michael Janosik of Dallas was one of approximately 450 persons to receive degrees at James Madison University during winter 1990 graduation ceremonies.

Seminary art students to have works on exhibit

The work of six art students from Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, has been selected to appear in the regional exhibit of the 1991 Scholastic Art Awards.

Miss Betsy Morris, art teacher at Seminary, announced that participants include Sonia Kimm of Shavertown.

Kimm was a Gold Key Award winner.

The exhibit was open for viewing February 9 and 10 at the Wyoming Valley Art League Gallery, Kingston.

SONIA KIMM

Seminary invites alumni scholarship applications

Wyoming Seminary invites alumni children and grandchildren entering their freshman, sophomore, or junior year to apply for a special scholarship established expressly for them. In 1986 Seminary's Alumni Council began the Alumni Association Scholarship Endowment Fund.

Student must complete both the admission and financial aid processes. All applications must be submitted by mid-March.

Announcement of the award will take place in May.

For more information on the Alumni Scholarship, contact Jack Eidam, Dean of Admission, Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, 201 North Sprague Avenue, Kingston, Pa. 18704-3593, or call (717) 283-6060.

Wisnieski named to honor society

Maureen Wisnieski, a student at Temple University School of Pharmacy, has been selected for induction into Rho Chi Honor Society. Membership in Rho Chi is limited to students who have displayed academic excellence, achievement in the science of pharmacy and allied sciences, strength of character, personality, and leadership.

Maureen has been named to the Dean's List for all three semesters during her attendance at Temple. The daughter of Dan and Irene Wisnieski of Shavertown, she is a graduate of Dallas High School where she was a member of the varsity field hockey and track teams

Scholarships up for grabs at Wyoming Seminary

Wyoming Seminary announces that several scholarships are available for the 1991-1992 academic year. They are the Trustee Achievement Scholarship, the Kingswood Scholarship and the Alumni Scholarship.

The Trustee Achievement Scholarship competition is open to students entering the ninth or 10th grades. Five scholarships worth thousands of dollars are awarded based on the results of a competitive exam to be administered Saturday, March 23. They include one full-tuition and one half-tuition awards to the top two competitors, who receive an additional $1000 scholarship for each subsequent year they attend Seminary. Three other competitors will each receive $1000 scholarships granted each year they attend the school. All awards are made regardless of financial need. Deadline for applications is March 19.

Applications are also being accepted until mid-March for Seminary's Alumni Scholarship. This is open to children and grandchildren of the school's alumni entering their freshman, sophomore or junior year. The student must qualify for admission, and submit necessary financial aid forms.

The Kingswood Scholarship is open to United Methodist students also entering the ninth, 10th or 11th grades and not currently enrolled in Wyoming Seminary. The application form recommendations from current teachers and the candidate's pastor, and a school transcript must be submitted by May 15.

Applications for all scholarships are available in the Wyoming Seminary Admission Office. Phone Dean of Admission John R. Eidam at 283-6060.

Area Penn State students named to 'Who's Who'

Twenty-five outstanding students at Penn State Wilkes-Barre will be included in the 1991 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges. Students were selected on the basis of their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success. They join an elite group of students selected from institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Among those honored are seated: Paul Clemm, Dallas; Philip Navola, Shavertown; Michele Lukas, Shavertown; Paul Farber, Hunlock Creek; Andrew Thomas, Shavertown.

Dallas High Soccer Club prepares for crafts show

Once again spring brings a wealth of talent to our area as the Dallas High School Soccer Club announces its plans to hold its seventh annual "Crafts and More" show.

The annual event, under the chairmanship of Marian Matthey, will be held Saturday, April 10, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Dallas High School.

One of the most popular craft shows in the area, "Crafts and More" is an opportunity for many talented artisans from the surrounding communities to display and sell their works.

Serving Northeastern PA For Over 30 Years

Thinking of changing your bathroom fixtures? Our Experience Sets Us Apart...

PARKER PLUMBING & HEATING

Central Air Conditioning and Furnaces
Free Estimates
RD #6, Box 23, Dallas, PA
675-4949 or
675-1155

Trade It with a Dallas Post classified

Silks • Dried • Pottery

Mostly baskets

Baskets for every use, from 50¢ to $50.00
Memorial Highway
Between Dallas & Harveys Lake

• Computerized Prescription Service
• Russell Stover Candies
• Greeting Cards
• PA Lottery Ticket
• Newspapers
• Magazines

Memorial Highway, Shavertown
675-1191

ENJOY THE ADVANTAGES

- Specializing in complex income tax situations
- Appointments at your convenience
- Quality work backed by H&R Block's guarantee of accuracy.

All for an extremely affordable fee.

EXECUTIVE TAX SERVICE

a division of
H&R BLOCK

Providing you with the highest standards of personalized income tax preparation service.

400 Third Ave., Suite 205, Kingston
(717) 283-5170

Scranton Preparatory School

A Catholic High School in the Jesuit Tradition

ANNOUNCES ITS ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1991
9:00 A.M. AT Scranton Prep School
1000 Wyoming Avenue

TEN HONORARY SCHOLARSHIPS will be awarded for outstanding performance on the Entrance Examination. The awards are valued at $200 each, for four years. Honorary scholarship holders will also be eligible for financial aid, if needed.

FINANCIAL AID will be awarded on the basis of performance in the exam and financial need as determined by the scholarship grant application process.

PLEASE NOTE:

- All scholarships are for four years.
- The entrance examination is for 8th grade students only.
- The examination covers English and Arithmetic.
- A registration fee of three dollars will be collected on examination day.

For further information, contact Scranton Prep School: 941-PREP
* Nationally Recognized as Exemplary in the U.S. Secondary School Recognition Project

Video Innovations

Professional Wedding Videos
15% OFF

Upon Reserving Your Wedding Video By 3/1/91
Packages Start At $350 829-5919