Workshop set on anger

Are you or someone you know in an abusive relationship? Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley is sponsoring a program dealing with the negative uses of anger in intimate relationships.

The program, "Men, Women in Anger", will begin on February 20, and will run on Tuesday evenings, 6:30-8:30 until April 2, 1991.

Group leaders will be Kathy Czeck Atwell LW, MSW and David Geller, BA. Atwell, a counselor at Family Service, has extensive experience in marriage counseling and aiding couples in violent relationships.

The program will teach basic concepts such as controlling anger, communicating better and taking responsibility for one's own behavior. A group of both men and women will come together to discuss these issues.

The goal of this workshop is to eliminate violent behavior between abusive couples by helping participants to see their partners' point of view.

A modest fee of $30.00 per person is required and a workbook will be included. The sessions will meet at Family Service Association, 73 W. Union St., Wilkes-Barre.

Couples interested in participating in this program should contact Family Service at 823-5144 between 9-5 p.m. Registration for this workshop closes on February 20, 1991.
