NATIONAL ENGINEERING WEEK

February 17 - 23, 1991

John Kuderka, from Falls, studies with Edward Dreisbach, associate professor of engineering at Penn State Wilkes-Barre. Professor Dreisbach is a registered professional engineer who has been recognized as an outstanding advisor of students.

Did you know?

- 1 in 4 engineers in PA are PSU grads
- 1 in 51 engineers in USA are PSU grads
- Penn State is one of the largest and most comprehensive schools in engineering and technology

Elena Zupko of Nanticoke works with Dr. Charles Ghilani on new surveying skills. Penn State Wilkes-Barre has the only accredited 2 year Surveying Program in Pennsylvania. Professor Ghilani, Ph.D. heads the Surveying Program, and regularly teaches undergraduate students. He is active in the PA Society of Land Surveyors.

Where else in this area but Penn State Wilkes-Barre do freshmen and sophomore students have the chance to work closely with top faculty in Engineering?

- Personal Attention
- Career Guidance
- Penn State Quality
- Entry into the vast network of PSU Engineers (over 60,000 living alumni of the College of Engineering)

Of special interest to women:

Times are changing for the engineering field . . . a field that used to be all men. Salaries for women engineers are higher than ever and so are the number of job opportunities. Here are a few ways to find out more:

March 17: Open House, 1 - 5 p.m., Athletics and Recreation Building

March 20: Women in Technology, 6-9 p.m. Center For Technology

Penn State Wilkes-Barre offers Associate Degrees in

- Electrical Engineering Technology
  - Mechanical Engineering Technology
  - Surveying Technology
  - Telecommunications Technology
  - Biomedical Equipment Technology
- And a Baccalaureate degree in
- Electrical Engineering Technology

Plus, students may begin any Penn State engineering and engineering technology program, such as Aerospace and Nuclear Engineering, at the Wilkes-Barre campus.

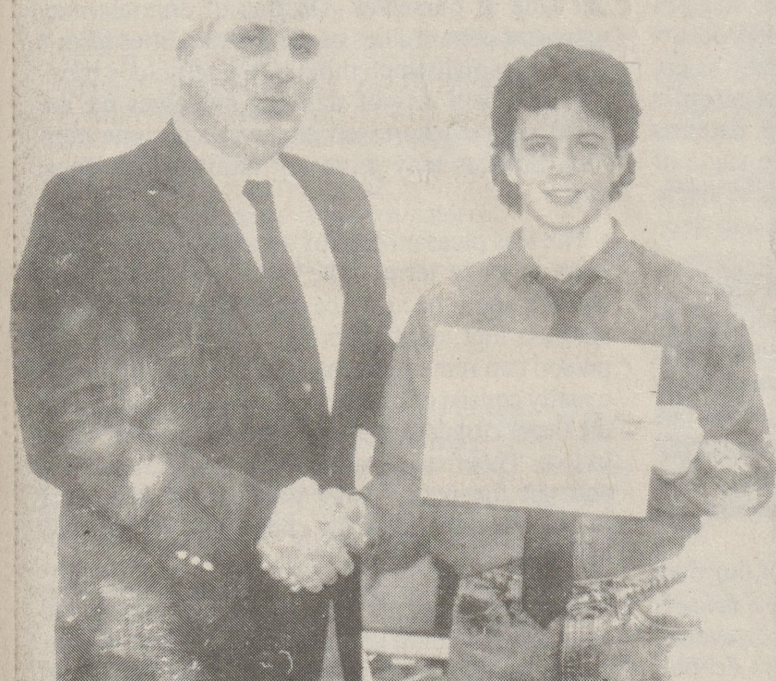

The campus is 12 miles from the center of Wilkes-Barre. Approximate travel times to the campus are Wilkes-Barre . . . 20 min., Hazleton . . . 50 min., Pittston . . . 25 min., Tunkhannock . . . 30 min.

Batory honored for service project

Recently Mr. Gilbert Griffiths, principal of the Dallas Middle School, honored eighth grade student Steve Batory for his school service project. As his service project, Steve repaired and refinished the chairs used in the school's lobby and waiting room. Steve received a certificate of appreciation from Mr. Griffiths.

Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Batory, College Manor, Dallas.
