Ballet Northeast to perform 'Swan Lake'

Although it failed to achieve immediate acclaim when first performed in Moscow a century ago, "Swan Lake" has since become the most popular of the romantic masterpieces, still challenging the artistic and technical resources of every major classical ballet company. In the continuing development of its growing and diverse repertory, Ballet Northeast will essay this work at 8 p.m., Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday, March 9 and 10 at the Dart Center for the Performing Arts, Wilkes University.

Appearing in the principal role of Odette/Odile will be Kristin Schleich Degnan, Associate Director of BNE. The role of Prince Siegfried will be performed by guest artist Peter Anzalone of New York. Artistic Director Peter Degnan will portray the evil sorcerer Von Rothbart.

Tickets may be secured in advance (at $10 and $6 for seniors, children and students) at Gallery of Sound outlets, and at the Kiddie Shoppe, Humphrey's Children's Apparel in Shavertown, and Gino's Footwear in Dallas, and also just prior to each performance at the Dart C.P.A. box office. Additional information may be secured and reservations made by calling 825-3515.

Pictured is Ms. Degnan in an earlier performance of the principal role.
