ing 14 high schools competing in English, math, chemistry, biology, physics and computer fundamentals.

Seven students from Dallas High School entered the competition including Jeri Searfoss, Meagan Wega, Kristen Gurdin, Jeff Mokychik, Keith McDonald, Eric Lehman and Emery Yurko.

Lake-Lehman students included Chris Kocher, Jason Toluba, Jeffrey Gold, Theodore Welebob, Jeffrey King, Michelle Richardson, Melissa Billington, and Michael Sholtis.

The tests which ran from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. recognize excellence in math, science and communication skills.

Each of the teams consisted of four to eight members, representing

Dallas area band parents to meet April 2

The next Dallas Area High School Band Parent's meeting is scheduled for April 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the senior high school band room.

Parent participation is essential due to various plans and decisions that are discussed and voted on at each monthly meeting, held on the first Tuesday of the month. Topics for discussion for April's meeting include: Concert plans, April 25; Nomination and election of new executive officers for 1991-92 school year; Band trip plans; Fund raising.

Thanks to the community for their greatly appreciated support throughout the school year as well as continued support in the future.

White sweatshirts w/navy blue Mountaineer and Dallas logo are still available. Cost is $20.00. Large, X-large and XX-large still available.

Lake-Lehman students to attend Region Band

Seventeen students from Lake-Lehman were chosen to attend the 1991 Region IV Band Festival which was held recently at the Berwick Senior High School. The band is comprised of 160 high school students from a 10 county area who were selected through district auditions which were held this past January. The guest conductor for this year's festival was Dr. Wayne Gorder who is the director of the wind ensemble at Kent State University. The students rehearsed under the direction of Mr. Gorder for three days and gave a public concert at the Berwick Sr. High School March 9th. The students from Lake-Lehman who were chosen to attend are:

- 1st row, from left, Renee Evans, Chris Brown, Tami Trescavage, Sara Yoblonski, Meaghan Ruddy.
- 2nd row, James Riggins, Diana Shoemaker, Tammy Kopko, Lee Ann Rogers, Chris Lincoski.
- 3rd row, Mike Fritzen, Jim Hutchins, Chris Price, Robby Terescavage.
- 4th row, Ryan Walp, Tim Smith, Mike Andrusis.

Library Open House and Graduation at Penn State Wilkes-Barre

Nearly 100 people attended the Library Open House and Graduation Reception held at the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre recently. The Open House was held to showcase the renovation of the Library building. The graduates were the honored guests. Several of the graduates returned to the Wilkes-Barre campus to complete their baccalaureate degree requirements. Demonstrations of the Library Information Access System and other data researching tools highlighted the event. Graduation ceremonies included the presentation of diplomas. Shown in photo are Greg Bogusky, Wilkes-Barre; Joseph Stone, Wilkes-Barre; George Hoffman, Shavertown; Jim Regan, Dallas; Rich Stokes, Shavertown; Dr. Steven Putzel, acting director of Academic Affairs; Dr. William Pearman, Campus Executive Officer.

Sem scholarship applications available

Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, is currently accepting applications for the 1991-92 Kingswood Scholarships.

John Wesley founded the Kingswood School in Bath, England in 1749 beginning a tradition of United Methodist church-related education.

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church has established the Kingswood Scholar Program to commemorate the Church's historic commitment to preparatory education. Through this program, Wyoming Seminary may provide two $2000 Kingswood Scholarships to new students each school year.

The 1990-91 winners of these Kingswood Scholarships to Wyoming Seminary are Rebekah Thorick of Binghamton, NY and Bill Lukesh of Hunlock Creek.

Applications are available to ninth, 10th and 11th grade students who are members of the United Methodist Church and not currently enrolled in Wyoming Seminary. Awards will be granted to students who, in the judgment of the scholarships' committee, combine personal character, a record of contributions to their current school and church communities, and the ability to achieve academic success at Wyoming Seminary.

Interested applicants should contact Wyoming Seminary's Admissions Director John R. Eidam in writing, or by calling 283-6060. Candidates will be required to submit an information sheet, plus recommendations from their pastor, and teachers, and a school transcript. Deadline for applications is May 15.
