Trucksville UMC installs chair lift

The Trustees of the Trucksville United Methodist Church announced the installation of a Chair Lift to provide easier access to the Sanctuary for the handicapped or for persons in a wheelchair. All funds for the Chair Lift were raised through the Memorial Fund of the church. Trucksville U.M.C. is also equipped with Phonic Ear wireless FM receivers for the convenience of hearing impaired worshippers. Pictured at the recent dedication, from left, are Helen Gaylord, Trustee; Isabel Kreidler, Trustee; Wayne Long, Trustee; Thomas Evans, Chairman of the Memorial Fund; Walter Meade, Chairman of the Board of Trustees; Rev. H. James Shillabeer, Pastor; and Jack Stephenson, Trustee.

Police report

DALLAS BOROUGH DUI CHARGE AFTER HE RUNS COP OFF ROAD

Dale Shupp was cited for driving under the influence by Officer William Norris, Jr., when Shupp nearly ran Norris off Church Street and Norris observed Shupp's car weaving about the road. Shupp's blood alcohol test proved to be .20 and he was issued a citation to appear before District Magistrate Earl Gregory.

DUI CHARGED

Robert J. Hooper, Jr. of Wilkes-Barre was stopped March 16 by Officer James J. Martin and charged with driving without a license and driving under the influence.

His blood alcohol test indicated a content of .26. He was issued a citation to appear before District Magistrate Earl Gregory.

SPEED, DUI CHARGED

Officer James J. Martin cited Phillip W. Finn, Plains for driving under the influence and exceeding the speed limit, March 18, when he stopped Finn for driving a Volkswagen north on Route 309 at an excessive rate of speed.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP HIT AND RUN ACCIDENT

Officer Walter Davis investigated a two-car accident at Dug Road and Bunker Hill where a hit and run driver struck a 1988 Jaguar driven by Ledonne C. Kelly of Dug Road. Kelly stated that he was driving on Bunker Hill when a vehicle came around a curve on a downhill grade and ripped off the Jaguar's driving mirror and scraped the driver and passenger doors and continued south on Bunker Hill Road toward Luzerne. The only description he could give was that the hit and run vehicle was a white Jeep Cherokee station wagon. Kingston Township police called the Luzerne Police Department and notified them of the hit and run.

HARVEYS LAKE PURSUIT LEADS TO DRUG ARREST

Harveys Lake police have charged a borough resident with narcotics violations following a pursuit last week.

Police say that Thomas Adams IV, of Box 109B Harveys Lake, was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of a small amount of marijuana, and various summary offenses after he was apprehended by assistant chief Ronald Spock.

According to police, Adams was clocked traveling 72 miles per hour on Route 415. When officer Spock attempted a traffic stop, Adams failed to stop and a pursuit ensued.

Police say that Adams pulled into the parking lot of Grotto Pizza and he then fled the vehicle but was apprehended by Spock. A search showed that Adams was in possession of a ceramic pipe and a film container with a small amount of marijuana.

Tickets on sale for kid's theater fest

Northeast Pennsylvania's International Children's Theater Festival will celebrate its 4th anniversary with an exciting line up of six International performing companies in mainstage productions, plus local and national performing artists and many of the old favorites from last year!

The 1991 International Children's Theater Festival, now a division of The F.M. Kirby Center, is scheduled for May 15 through May 18. Reservations for school performances - 29 to chose from - are now being accepted. For those schools which have not already received their copies of the 1991 Festival Brochure, please call (717) 829-KIDS NOW to have one mailed.

Last year 20,000 children and their families or their school classmates witnessed the thrill of live theater performances when they participated in the NE PA. International Children's Theater Festival. And this year, with 29 school performances plus an additional 18 public performances, many more children are guaranteed to be part of this huge celebration just for them.

The 29 school performances are now on sale to school groups of 20 or more at only $3.50 per person. And those school groups that are able to take advantage of enjoying two shows, are able to do so at only $6 per person. Reservations are now being accepted by the Festival office and are expected to fill up quickly.
