Saturn car dealership opening in Hanover

Saturn of Wyoming Valley officially opened for business May 9 at 9 a.m. at 2140 Sans Souci Parkway, Hanover Township, announced Saturn retailer partner and owner Ken Wallace.

Joining Ken Wallace in welcoming the first customers into the brand-new 11,500 square-foot retail facility were Saturn of Wyoming Valley team members: General Manager, Kevin Boylan; Business Manager, Margaret Ann Skirring; Sales Director, Dave Al-Bola; Service Director, Dan Bistrichan; Marketing Director, Barbara Ross; and Saturn Field Representatives, Dan Crowder and Marty Raymond.

"We're proud and excited to introduce the Saturn cars to the people in this area," said Ken Wallace. "I'm confident the cars will appeal to a wide range of individuals—families, young adults, singles, college students and more."

Saturn cars come in a sport coupe (SC), two versions of a four door, five passenger sedan (SL/SL1), and a sport sedan (SL2).

Saturn Corporation, an independent subsidiary of General Motors, is based in Spring Hill, Tennessee and in Troy, Michigan. Saturn products are built at a four-million square-foot manufacturing and assembly complex in Spring Hill, Tennessee.
