C-TEC presents excellence awards

To strive for quality is to strive for excellence. This year, as in years past, C-TEC Corporation, Wilkes-Barre, presented its annual Pursuit of Excellence awards to those employees who have achieved an exemplary level of quality in their work. Each year, C-TEC recognizes employees who have contributed in excess of their job requirements and those accomplishments have exceeded expectations.

C-TEC Chairman Andrew J. Sordoni, III and President Charles E. Parente presented individual and group awards to 20 employees at the Company's Annual Management Information Meeting recently held in Wilkes-Barre.

White elephant sale highlights annual flower club auction

The West Side Flower Club conducted its "Make It, Bake It, Sew It, Grow It" auction during the May meeting held recently at the Church of Christ Uniting, Kingston. Added to this year's event was a White Elephant Sale.

A minute of silence was observed in memory of Palmer Lewis who had been an active, long-time member. A book will be donated to the Hoyt Library in memoriam.

The general chairperson of the auction was Ann Buczkowski. The president, Marion Kunigonis, was auctioneer. Treasurers were Annette Reese and Marion Frantz.

Chairperson of the bake stand was Mary Domanosky, assisted by Ann Stegura, Adele Semanek and Helen Bacak.

Arts and crafts was chaired by Marge Molly. Mary Kisailus and Ruth Rinehimer assisted.

John Chorba was chairman of small plants. He was assisted by Margaret Ducas, Helen Marcelonis and Joan Yarris.

Chairperson of the white elephant sale was Irene Yasenchak assisted by Angie Anushko, Carmela Gammatori and Mary Chollak.

Assisting the auctioneer on the floor were Leonard Domanosky and John Chorba.

The next meeting of the West Side Flower Club will be held Tuesday, June 11 at the Church of Christ Uniting, Kingston, starting at 6:30 p.m.
