

NEWS ITEM - David "Jigger" Jones is sentenced to at least one month in jail for providing liquor to minors. During his sentencing hearing, an assistant district attorney says it's well-known that Jones has supplied alcohol to teenagers.

Festival of Faith Service to be held June 2 at Shavertown United Methodist Church

The Annual Festival of Faith Worship Service will be held on Sunday, June 2, at 11 a.m. at the Shavertown United Methodist Church, corner of North Pioneer Avenue and West Center Street, Shavertown.

Twenty-two young people will be confirmed and received into the church during the service. The Rev. Dr. William B. Lawrence, Wilkes-Barre District Superintendent of Wyoming Conference of the United Methodist Church, will celebrate the Confirmation, assisted by: Keith Atherholt, Susan E. Davis, and David Jenkins, Lay Leaders; Jean Johnson, Youth Coordinator; and Pastors Harriet L. Santos and James A. Wert. Dr. Lawrence will also present the homily.

Music in the Service will be presented by the Children's Choir, directed by Barbara Zarambo, assisted by Bonnie Ziegler; the Festival Choir, directed by Ros E. Santos; and the Freedom Ringers Handbell Choir, directed by Peggy Knapich. A quartet, composed of Jason Getz, Megan Ruddy, Holly Randolph and Bob Nattress, will accompany the hymn singing. A special music prelude will begin at 10:45 a.m. prior to the beginning of the service.

A procession of the Confirmation Class, along with those confirmed last year, representatives of the Sunday School, the choirs and principals will be directed by Doris and Ray Parsons leading the group from the side church lawn to the main church entrance.

Gerald Munzing will be in charge of ushers; Charlotte Martin is attendance chairperson; Elwood and Mary Lou Swingle will prepare balloons; Robert Deeble will prepare special arrangements; Robert Berkey will record the service on video tape; and Fred Wesley will be photographer.

Following the Festival of Faith Church Service, a lawn reception will honor the Confirmation Class, chaired by Peggy Evans and served by members of the Evangelism Committee.

Women's Conference slated for June 1

Women from all walks of life in the Greater Wilkes-Barre Area and beyond will share their talent and wisdom on Saturday, June 1, at the Luzerne County Women's Conference, to be held all day on the campus in Lehman of Penn State Wilkes-Barre. The public is invited, and at least 500 women and men are expected to attend the 7th Annual Conference, the theme of which is "We the Women of the World." A co-sponsor this year and financial backer is the Pennsylvania Council on the Humanities. Features of the conference, in addition to the almost 70 workshops, are an art exhibit by five local artists, a keynote talk by a futurist and feminist-environmentalist, appearance by folksinger Bridget Ball, and a book store with volumes of special interest to women. Registration information is available at Penn State; call 675-9121.

This week, the conference presenters were the honorees at a reception on campus to enable them to meet each other and become familiar with the locations for their workshops. Approximately half of the 70 women on the conference program were present when the above photo was taken.

Anzalone Brothers and Co. release new cassette single

The Anzalone Brothers and Company have released a new single cassette entitled BIMINI. The recording will be distributed nationally to over 200 major Billboard reporting stations by World Canadian Music, New York, New York.

The single was recorded at Holland Sound Studios, Scranton, and is available, along with their first cassette Volume I at Joe Nardone's Gallery of Sound stores and Ralph's Record City, Scranton.

The Anzalone Brothers are a product of a music-loving family including Rev. Samuel Anzalone who brought the Von Trapp family singers of "Sound of Music" fame to the Wyoming Valley in the late 40's.

The brothers started their careers as entertainers when Jim was 7 and Ange, 5, performing in minstrel shows, fund-raising events, and community oriented affairs while still in short pants in the 50's. They signed with talent agent Jack Siegal from New York City and appeared at major Catskill Resorts in the late 50's. Then in college, in 1965 they appeared at Schaub Auditorium at Penn State and helped raise money for many worthy causes. The brothers are now practicing law and medicine in the community.

Members of the band are: Ange Anzalone, Jim Anzalone, Don Lyon, Perry Orfanella, and Angelo Yanuzzi.

WILL YOUR HIGH-COUPON MUNICIPAL BONDS BE CALLED?

Perhaps...and you should do the proper planning now.

Between 1990 and 1995, billions of dollars worth of high-coupon municipal bonds will be called...and your bonds may be among them. So Smith Barney has prepared a special report to give you answers to questions such as, "How do I know when my bonds will be called?" and "What can I do now to reduce reinvestment risk?"

And Smith Barney will help you to find tax-exempt municipal bonds that meet your particular investment needs — such as coupon rate, quality, maturity or in-state exemption.

If your bonds are called, be ready to make informed reinvestment decisions.
