Gunster honored for business plan

Christopher G. Gunster, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Gunster, of Dallas, was a member of the team selected 1st runner-up in the 1991 Babson College Douglass Prize Competition.

Gunster and his team presented a business plan for the Gourmet Mushroom Co., a company that handles the growing, distribution and marketing of gourmet sitake mushrooms.

The Douglass Prize Competition is a graduate business plan competition that awards cash prizes totaling $5000 to the winner and runners-up. The business plans cover startups, acquisitions, company growth, real estate development or entrepreneurial ventures. The awards are presented each spring at the Babson College Founder's Day Celebration.

Gunster earned an MBA degree at Babson's 1991 commencement, graduating with high distinction.

Dallas High Band has had a productive and exciting spring

Following the Senior High School Band concert on April 25, featuring the Jazz band, the students departed for a three day trip to Ocean City, Md., for the Marlin-Boardwalk Parade then on to Jackson, New Jersey where they performed at Great Adventure Park.

On May 16, the concert and jazz bands played a variety of music for the enjoyment of the Fine Arts Festival spectators in Wilkes-Barre.

Upcoming events include the Memorial Day Parade in Dallas and the final performance for the school year will be at the graduation ceremonies at Dallas.

The Summer band program will continue over vacation including band camp during the last two weeks prior to the first day of school.
