An appreciation

Dorothy Dodson; a life dedicated to community

The death of Dorothy Elston Dodson, lifetime resident of Kunkle, greatly saddened her many friends and relatives. A daughter of the late Ralph and Agnes Isaacs Elston, Dorothy was a student in Dallas Township schools and graduated in business administration from Wyoming Seminary.

She and her husband, Fred, were known throughout the Back Mountain for their active participation in community activities as well as their being proprietors of the Dodson Economy Store until they closed the business 10 years ago.

Dorothy was dedicated to her church, the Kunkle United Methodist, where she served as organist for 60 years. She also served as president of the Kunkle United Methodist Women and for years served as secretary for the church.

For many years she was active in the Dallas Chapter of Eastern Star and was a past matron having served as Worthy Matron in 1968.

Dorothy Dodson was also a loyal member of the Kunkle Volunteer Fire Company and for years she organized and worked at numerous fundraising events. Her dedication was so great that her son Jack has continued in her footsteps and devotes most of his leisure time to the fire company and its activities and is presently fire chief.

Dorothy's presence in the church and community will be greatly missed by her friends and neighbors but her memory will be with them forever if they continue to take part in the church and community activities she loved so well.

As many of our lifetime residents go on to greater heights, they take a part of their community with them, hoping someone will step in and keep it moving forward.

Edward Carey brought joy to the lives he touched

The tragic death of Shavertown resident Edward Carey last week leaves a void in the community and especially at the Shavertown Fire Company.

Born in Hanover but residing in the Back Mountain for almost 50 years, Carey brought joy and happiness to hundreds of children in the area and to their families by playing the role of Santa Claus for the Shavertown Fire Company and other organizations who sought his assistance. He was never too busy to visit a sick child in the hospital or at his or her home. He loved children and was rewarded by their smile when jolly Saint Nick took time out to visit them.

Not only was he dedicated to the fire company where he was a member for the years he lived in the area, he also served as president, treasurer and fire chief in the company and took part in all community activities.

A lover of music he took an active part in various barbershop music groups in the area. He was also active in the ambulance association.

He had a great concern for progress in the Back Mountain Area and recently ran for supervisor in Kingston Township. He was one of those rare individuals who believed that with progress came change - change that was usually for the benefit of all.

Edward Carey was also active in his church, St. Therese's of Shavertown and was a member in the Holy Name Society.

He will be missed not only by his family and friends but by members of the community as well and especially by members of the Shavertown Volunteer Fire Company for Ed Carey was always there when he was needed. What could be more appropriate than that memorial contributions be made in his name to the Shavertown Volunteer Fire Company, the organization he loved best.
