LCCC lists fall course offerings in Dallas

In a few weeks, Luzerne County Community College will once again open its doors to the college's highest enrollment ever.

The Nanticoke-based school is expecting 2,450 freshmen students to flood the campus in a few weeks, the largest freshmen class in the 24-year history of the college.

The new freshmen, who will be attending classes on a full or part-time basis, will be welcomed to the college campus on Monday, August 19, for the annual Freshmen Orientation Program which will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the college gymnasium.

The community college will offer a full slate of courses for the Fall semester at its Dallas off-campus extension site. Registration for courses in Dallas will be conducted at the Dallas Area High School on Monday, August 12, from 6 to 8 p.m.

Among the courses scheduled to be offered in Dallas are classes in Accounting, Business Law, English, Literature, Mathematics, Psychology, Microcomputers, Marketing, CPR and Typing.

Additionally, a number of personal development courses will also be offered in Dallas. "Investing for the 90's," will be held on Tuesday, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., from October 1 through October 22. The course will focus on corporate and municipal bonds, stocks, mutual funds, annuities and retirement plans.

Three additional personal development courses, "Past Life Regression - A Realistic Approach," "Stained Glass," and "Watercolor Techniques," will also be offered at the college's Dallas extension site. All possibilities of past life regression will be examined in "Past Life Regression - A Realistic Approach," to be held on Thursdays, from 7:30 to 9 p.m., from November 7 through November 21. "Stained Glass" will review the techniques of constructing stained glass projects on Mondays from 6 to 9:30 p.m., from October 21 through November 18. The basic approaches to watercolor painting will be discussed in "Watercolor Techniques" to be held on Wednesdays, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. from October 2 through Octo-

Tuition cost at the community college is $44 per credit hour, enabling students to complete a one-year certificate program at a reasonable cost of slightly more than $1,300 and a two-year degree program at a cost slightly more than $2,600.

Day and evening classes for the Fall semester will begin on Tuesday, September 3. Among the college's other off-campus sites to be offering credit courses for the Fall semester are Wilkes-Barre, Pittston, Honesdale, Berwick, Hazleton, Kingston, Tunkhannock, Old Forge, Elk Lake and Scranton.

Eric Lehman will attend Naval Academy program

Eric Lehman, son of James and Donna Lehman, Dallas, was one of approximately 900 students selected from nearly 15,000 candidates to attend a science and engineering summer seminar program at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

Lehman is a senior at Dallas High School.

The Naval Academy invites students who are highly proficient in mathematics, science or engineering to Annapolis to acquaint them with educational opportunities at the academy and professional opportunities in the naval service.

Students attending the week-long seminar select six workshops from 21 offered. While at the Naval Academy, the students experience midshipman life by living in the midshipmen's dormitory, using the academy's extensive athletic and computer facilities and sailing on the academy's patrol boats.

As the undergraduate college of the Navy, the Naval Academy prepares midshipmen morally, mentally and physically to be professional officers in the naval service.

Bishop O'Reilly awards 1991 Acura

Joseph Kasmark Jr., President of the Bishop O'Reilly/West Side Central Catholic High School Blue and Gold Club announced the winner of a 1991 Integra RS from Ertley Motor World. Mr. Frank Jones of Buck Township was the Grand Prize winner for the Club's Annual Giving Calendar fundraiser. Mr. Jones's winning calendar was one of 6,000 sold by the organization.

Peter Brussock was chairman of the fund raising activity. The Blue and Gold Club, an organization of parents and friends, is charged with the responsibility of raising $100,000/year to offset the cost of tuition. The calendar is its major fund raiser. Mr. Jones's calendar was a Christmas gift from his family.

Gulf war vet visits Dallas school

Lance Corporal Carson Gramley III, of the 473rd Marine Wing Support Squadron located in Wyoming, recently paid a visit to the Dallas Elementary School 4th and 5th grade students of Miss Rita Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Meyers to thank them for their letters while he was on duty in the Persian Gulf. He also held a question and answer session with them.

Lance Corporal Gramley was a part of the Baghdad Express Motor Transport Division. His duty was transporting ammunition and explosives from the back lines to the front lines. His division hauled some 12 million pounds of these materials in a two week period. He was released from Active Duty to Reserve Status on May 15, 1991. He would once again like to thank all the people in the area for their letters and packages.
