Open house at P&G August 14-15

The Procter & Gamble Paper Products Company is having an Open House at their Mehoopany Plant on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 14 and 15. The public is invited to tour the facility and to observe the manufacture of consumer paper products such as PAMPERS, LUVS, CHARMIN, WHITE CLOUD, and BOUNTY. In addition to touring some of the operating areas of the plant, visitors will see displays and demonstrations which will help to describe the consumer paper products business. During the Open House hours, from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m., tours are self guided, and no tickets or appointments are required.

"We're celebrating our 25th anniversary this year," said Site Director Mary Anne Gale, the plant's top manager, "and this is our way of including the community in our celebration. We're very proud of our plant, and we're very proud of our relationship with the community. You have helped us grow. To say thank you, we're inviting all our neighbors to see our operation."

The plant is located on Route 87, near the village of Mehoopany. The facility is the largest P&G plant in the world, employing over 3000 Northeastern Pennsylvanians and providing an annual payroll in excess of $100 million.

The Procter & Gamble Paper Products Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Procter & Gamble Company. The Procter & Gamble Company is a major global consumer products company, with headquarters in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gospel meeting at Harding church

The Harding Church of Christ on Route 92 in Exeter Township, will hold an old-fashioned Gospel Meeting from August 11-15. In the tradition of Gospel Meetings of yesteryear, the lessons will provide a spiritual renewal for the congregation, as well as an opportunity for those who are searching to hear the "good news" of redemption through Christ.

Evangelist for the meeting will be Brother David Gibson of Commerce, Texas. Brother Gibson is well-known in the northeast, having served the Church of Christ in Scranton for seven years following graduation from Harding College in 1969. Since leaving Scranton, he completed a Master of Divinity degree from Abilene Christian University, and currently preaches for the Church of Christ in Commerce, Texas.

Visitors of all ages are encouraged and welcomed. For directions or additional information, call 388-2664.
