NEWS ITEM - As protests continue against the newly-instituted trash and recycling program serving Dallas Borough and Dallas and Kingston townships, a likely ally has surfaced.

County Commissioners proclaim Luzerne County Fair Days

The Luzerne County Fair will be held September 4 through the 8th. This event provides agricultural enrichment, arts and crafts displays, professional entertainment, livestock exhibits, great food and amusements for children of all ages.

The fair is constantly growing and the revenues generated by this event are channeled into improving the quality of life in the Back Mountain Area.

The Board of Luzerne County Commissioners have proclaimed Sept. 4-8 as Luzerne County Fair Days and ask all of our citizens to salute those dedicated people who seek to enhance their community by conducting the fair. Shown, from left, are the Board of Commissioners, Jim Phillips, Frank Crossin Jr. and Frank Trinisewski. From the fair are Ed Kelly, President, Fall Fair Association and General Chairman, and Marie Dietz, Public Relations Chairman.

General to discuss Gulf War at LCCC

Brigadier General Joseph F. Perugino of Kingston, will be one of the featured panelists for "After Desert Storm-What?" a town meeting sponsored by the Luzerne County Community College Institute of Public Affairs.

The program is slated for Wednesday, Aug. 28, at 7 p.m. at the LCCC Educational Conference Center on the main campus in Nanticoke.

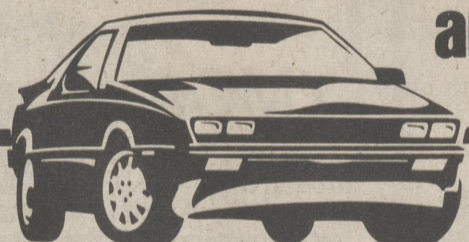

General Perugino is assigned to the Headquarters of the Pennsylvania National Guard at Fort Indiantown Gap. General Perugino, who advanced through the enlisted ranks to his present position, is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and the Army War College. He is a previous commander of the 28th Infantry Division Artillery, Hershey and Battalion Commander of the 1st Battalion 109th Field Artillery, Wilkes-Barre. In addition to his military responsibilities, Perugino is vice president of Administration and Marketing for PG&W. Perugino serves on the advisory board of Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus, the board of the Wyoming Commemorative Association and the Crime Clinic of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Perugino was the recipient of the Frank Gibben Memorial Award for outstanding contributions to the improvement of the quality of work life, presented by the American Society of Training Development; and the William Penn Society of Philadelphia chose him as Distinguished Pennsylvanian in 1982.

Other panelists for the town meeting will include Keith Martin, news anchor at WBRE-TV and Dr. Umid Nejib, Dean of the School of Science and Engineering at Wilkes University.

For more information on "After Desert Storm-What?" call Fred Walters, program coordinator at 829-7424.
