Barrett Feldman completes summer of study in Japan

Barrett Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feldman, Shavertown, and a Senior at Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, was awarded a Youth For Understanding Corporate Scholarship last summer.

This enabled her to travel to Japan where she studied the culture, customs and language for five weeks.

Feldman lived with a Japanese family during her visit and attended local schools. Feldman also was accepted to the Governor's School this summer where she studied art.

Selection for the scholarship is based upon essays and interviews in which the applicant must participate, as well as the fulfillment all the necessary requirements of the program.

Scout Troop 165 seeks new members

Boy Scout Troop 165 is preparing for their first year of organized scouting activities. If you are 11 years old or completed the fifth grade, you are eligible to participate in the Scouting Program.

The purpose of Scouting is to prepare a young boy to take the proper road to adulthood and to increase his degree of self reliance.

If you're interested in learning new skills, having fun, enjoying outdoor camping and activities and want to be proud of what your ideas are then join the Scout Program.

Troop 165, which is sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day-Saints, meets each Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the LDS Chapel located on Manor Drive in Trucksville. No fee is required to join this troop. If you need more information about joining, call Jim Kelly, Scoutmaster, at 477-2007 or Dan Davis at 287-6621. Scouting is a nondenominational activity that can be enjoyed by all young men.
