Dr. David Fields to address Unitarian congregation Sept. 29

Dr. David Fields will be the speaker at the Sunday service of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Wyoming Valley on September 29 at 10 a.m. The congregation, newly formed this fall, meets every Sunday in the Montessori School on Market and Maple Streets, Kingston. The public is welcome. Dr. Fields' topic will be "Succoth: also a holy time for Unitarian Universalists."

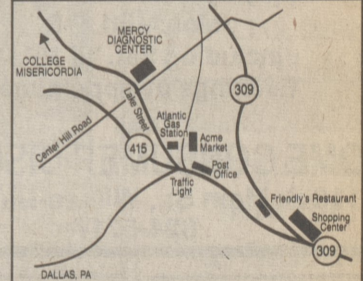

Dr. Fields and his family moved to the Wyoming Valley from Boston last year in order for him to establish a medical practice in geriatrics. His geriatrics training took place at Harvard Medical School. He also is a graduate of the Medical School of the University of Virginia. David and Jean Fields and their two children live in Shavertown. Jean Fields is a member of the board of trustees of the new Unitarian Universalist Congregation.
