Kingston Twp. steps up speed patrols

Kingston Township Police Chief Paul Sabol announces that increased police patrols will be in effect throughout the township to enforce speed limits. "The total number of accidents in the Township has dropped for three consecutive years. Aggressive speed enforcement is the main reason," stated Sabol.

The Kingston Township Police Department will be using marked and unmarked patrol cars equipped with VASCAR speed timing devices.

Drivers are also reminded that school is open once again and that extra care must be given to protect the children.

Checkpoint for DUI in KT October 5

Kingston Township Police Chief Paul Sabol announces that there will be a DUI checkpoint in the township on the evening of Saturday, Oct. 5.

In addition checking for drivers who are under the influence of alcohol, officers will check for things such as child safety seats and proper driver's license.

So far this year, Kingston Township police have made 35 arrests for driving under the influence, Chief Sabol said.

Crispell family holds 78th annual reunion

The 78th Annual Reunion of the Crispell Family (Pennsylvania Branch) was held recently at Dymond Grove, Noxen, with approximately 74 attending.

The meeting was opened with a beautiful prayer by Clarence Shupp and President Albert Crispell presided at the business meeting. He asked family members to return their family history sheets to the Secretary by December 31 as the Supplement to the Crispell Family History will be published after the first of the year and will be available at next year's reunion which is scheduled for the second Saturday in August at Dymond Grove, Noxen, beginning with a picnic lunch at noon.

John Sidorek, President of the National Crispell Family Association reported that the 25th Annual Meeting of that Association will be held on Saturday, Sept. 28, at New Paltz, New York at 9:30 a.m. in Deyo Hall. New Paltz was founded by Antoine Crispell along with 11 other patentees in 1660, the settlers sailing on the Gilded Otter from Holland. Original stone houses of these settlers are still standing, and the Crispell Family in conjunction with the Huguenot Historical Society built a replica of the original church.

Police report

LEHMAN TOWNSHIP WINDSHIELD SMASHED

Nick Paugsch, of RR4 Dallas, reported September 17 at 3:35 p.m. that someone smashed the windshield, headlights and mirrors of his 1977 Sunbird. The radio was taken from the car, and an attempt was made to hotwire it. Ptl. Howard Kocher was the investigating officer.

POLE KNOCKED OVER

Police say that on September 19, a UGI utility pole on Route 29

was broken after being struck by a pickup truck. The truck, a Chevrolet S-10 was moderately damaged and driven away. The driver was unhurt.

Ralph S. Bowman II, of Lakeview Drive, Sweet Valley, was driving north on Route 29 in the rain when his truck hydroplaned on the wet pavement, spun around, and struck the pole with the back of the truck. The pole snapped and fell to the road along with power lines. Route 29 was closed for approximately an hour. Investigating officer was Ptl. Howard Kocher.
