Contest seeks top Irish lass

A local young lady will be given the opportunity to win a trip to Ireland next summer.

The Donegal Society of Greater Wilkes-Barre is sponsoring a contest for single girls, age 18-24 years who reside in the Northeastern Pennsylvania region. The contestants must have reached their 18th birthday before July 31, 1992 and have not reached their 25th birthday before the same date. At least one of the contestants' parents must be of Irish descent. This is not a talent contest.

The final selection will be made at the Donegal Ball at the Ramada Inn, Wilkes-Barre on November 1, 1991. The winner will receive an all expense paid week-long trip to Ireland in July, 1992 and will be entered in an International Mary from Dungle Contest, County Donegal, Ireland. An all expense paid trip will also be provided for a qualified chaperone.

All contestants will be required to appear at the Donegal Ball in November. Contestants will also be required to be available for interviews by judges preceding the ball. The winner of the contest must be available for the one-week trip to the Donegal Festival in late July or early August of 1992.

Applications are available from members of the Donegal Society, and also at the Adjutant General's Office, 1st Floor, Va Building, Wilkes-Barre; Allied Health Office, King's College; Cronin's Irish Cottage, Scranton; Clairew McNelis, Freeland; and John McKeown, Chairman, 43 Penn Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702. Last day for acceptance of applications is October 20, 1991.

Maureen Connolly, of Harvey's Lake won the International Contest at the Dungle Festival in 1988. Helen McBrearty, Hazleton, was this year's representative to the festival.

Nesbitt Auxiliary plans gourmet feast

The Medical Branch Auxiliary of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital is planning an extraordinary gourmet evening to be held at The Overbrook Restaurant, Dallas on Sunday, Oct. 27, at 5 p.m.

Guests at the affair will savor a gourmet meal prepared by Anthony Macri, chef and owner of The Overbrook, while enjoying quality entertainment by classically trained tenor Peter Marino. He will serenade the audience with his remarkable repertoire, ranging from the opera of Caruso and the magnificent songs of Mario Lanza to Broadway classics, Tom Jones, Frank Sinatra, and impressions of famous singers.

Call the Spook Line for a scare

For the second year, Lehman, has a call-in spook line (717) 675-1216. The Lehman Spook Line plays a pre-recorded three minute message to keep people informed about the horrible happenings at the Lehman Haunted Barn.

The Lehman Haunted Barn, located behind the Lehman Post Office, is open for your personal inspection on October 18, 19, 20 and October 25 through 30. The Haunted Barn is open to the public from 7-10 p.m. on school nights and 7-11 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. Your trip will cost $3.00 and benefits the Lehman U.M.Y.F., the Lehman Volunteer Fire Co. and the Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund which helps critically or terminally ill children in our area.

The Lehman Spook Line message is changed every week beginning in October, so call for your weekly spook special, at (717) 675-1216.
