Lehman antique show Oct. 12-13

Over 35 regional antique dealers will show and sell their wares at The Barn in Lehman on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 12 and 13. The show will be held rain or shine with displays under cover. Visitors to the show always look to the display by Nancy Gatto of Duryea, featuring antique furniture and collectible glassware.

Gary Baker, spokesman for the regional dealers, said the fall foliage colors will be at their peak in the Back Mountain on the October 12 and 13 weekend. Dealers from Berwick, Tunkhannock, Duryea, Catawissa, Dimock, Shickshinny, Waverly, the Back Mountain and Wyoming Valley areas will offer furniture, lamps, primitives, sports equipment, old tools, Indian relics, postcards, glassware, china, quilts, and more.

The Loyaltyville United Methodist Church will supply baked goods; lunch will be available. There is no admission charge and parking is free. Show times are 9-5 daily. Inside The Barn many items will be specially priced, including custom rug weaving. Visitors may see the looms being used. For more information, call The Barn at 675-4232.

Lake-Lehman parents invited to meeting on reading skills

Parents of children currently enrolled in the Lake-Lehman's Chapter 1 Reading and/or Math programs are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting for parents on October 16, at 7 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School.

This meeting provides parents with an excellent opportunity to meet with Chapter 1 Reading and Math teachers and to discuss activities that you can use with your child at home. Parents can familiarize themselves with the materials and instructional aids being utilized by their child in the Reading and Math Programs.

Membership in the Parent's Advisory Council will allow you to become involved in the program and will be explained at this time. We welcome this opportunity to meet you. Refreshments will be served.

Scouts meet with Rep. Mundy

Recently, Scouts from Dallas Boys Scout Troop #281 met with Representative Phyllis Mundy with regards to the citizenship requirements within the first class rank. After reviewing procedures and activities within the Representative's office in Kingston, they continued their discussion over lunch with the Representative at Ollies in Edwardsville, where Representative Mundy queried the scouts on a number of ideas and issues currently in the news. Then she discussed their opinions and how they and voters reach their opinions. Representative Mundy encouraged them to continue their good work, to be sure to register to vote when the opportunity presents itself to them, to encourage their parents and older friends to do likewise, and most importantly, to be active in their communities and especially in their government, as well as, in government service if the opportunity presents itself.

Dallas marching band takes first in tourney

The Dallas Senior High School Marching Band under the direction of Mr. Todd L. Hunter, placed 1st in Group I competition at the Tournament of Bands March of Champions hosted by the Lake-Lehman High School Band, on September 29. This was Dallas' first competition performance of the new season.

With nearly one third of the band's membership being new this year, the group and instructors are looking forward to a successful season. The continued support from students, parents, staff and school officials of the music programs will significantly help make this become a reality.

The Dallas Band Boosters will hold their next meeting for band parents on Tuesday, Nov. 5, 7:30 p.m. in the Senior High band room. All parents are encouraged to attend.

The band students will be conducting several fund raisers throughout the school year. A Century Pride cheese, nut and Christmas sale is currently underway and there will be a pasty sale from Oct. 21 through Nov. 4. The pasties will be made by Pasty Lady in Edwardsville. Students are selling coupons for $3.25 per pasty. The purchaser can then take the coupon to the Pasty Lady at their convenience.

Megan Stair, daughter of Robert and Jane Stair, recently completed the George N. Parks Drum Major Academy. She will now assist Eric Clothier with directing the Dallas Senior High School Band.

Lake Township marks 2nd anniversary of recycling

October 12 will mark the first anniversary of the opening of the Lake Township Recycling Center. The drop off center was started in October 1990 by a group of interested volunteers with the cooperation of the township supervisors. On the first day of its operation, 19 householders brought recyclables. Since then participation has grown to an average of 80 patrons with an average of 1 1/2 tons of material collected each Saturday.

The center operates in the township garage on the second Saturday of each month. Items accepted are bimetal and aluminum cans; clear, green and brown glass and plastic. As part of a cooperative agreement with Harveys Lake, the
