'Hansel and Gretel' Ballet to be performed at Misericordia

The Empire State Ballet can be seen in their new production, "Hansel and Gretel, The Ballet," on Friday, Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. The performance will take place in Walsh Auditorium at College Misericordia. Admission is free.

A musical score by famed Broadway composer Elizabeth Swados is featured in a colorful mix of theater and classical ballet. Set in three elaborately staged fairy-tale scenes, "Hansel and Gretel" draws human characters from the traditional plot line. "Since the story takes place in a forest," says Artistic Director Barbara Striegel, "We also have an exciting cast of animal characters. The special animal heads have been designed by Stacy Morse, the Hollywood designer who did 'Mermaids'." "Hansel and Gretel, The Ballet" is part of the 1991-92 College Misericordia Cultural Events Series, "Gateway to an American Celebration." Further information on this production and others in the series can be obtained by calling 674-6400.
