Open house notes 25th anniversary at LCCC

As part of the 25th Anniversary Open House Celebration at Luzerne County Community College on Saturday, Oct. 26, the college bookstore will host a book-signing by Dr. Sheldon Spear, Shavertown, professor of history at LCCC and author of "Chapters in Wyoming Valley History."

The bookstore will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Dr. Spear will be available from 10 a.m. to noon to offer his signature with the purchase of the book. The bookstore will also offer a 25% discount on most merchandise and there will be a drawing for prizes.

Along with the book-signing, the college-wide open house will offer something for everyone including a craft festival, an antique/hot rod car exhibit, computer display, preventative health fair, art exhibition, aviation van, career display, dental clinic open house, information booth, pulmonary function screenings, quilting reunion, science fair, surgical technology display, living history exhibit, and vocational school display.

For more information on the book-signing and other events scheduled at LCCC's 25th Anniversary Open House, contact the college at 829-7394.

Entries are being accepted at the store on the Memorial Highway until October 31, and winners will be announced November 2.

The winners and honorable mentions will be displayed at the Back Mountain Memorial Library from November 8 to 31.

Prizes are gift certificates from Dallas Photo: $75 for first, $15 for second, and $10 for third.

Last year about 40 people entered the contest.

The contest is open to all. Photographs must be color, show Pennsylvania fall foliage, and be no larger than 5 by 7. There is a maximum of three entries per person.

The show will be judged by independent photographers from the area.

Entrants should ask for Randy Loyd at the store.

Dallas Rotary Club lawn mower winner

The Dallas Rotary Club recently announced the winner of a Cub Cadet, nine horsepower rotary mower. Paul Rodda, the winner recently took delivery at Hilbert's, The Tractor Store, Dallas.

All profits from the event were turned over to Dallas Rotary Charities, which help support many local charities as well as The Paul Harris Foundation which helps promote international understanding.

Free seminar about breast cancer slated for Oct. 25

A complimentary breast cancer awareness seminar featuring Phyllis Newman, Tony award-winning actress and breast cancer survivor, will be presented by Nesbitt Memorial Hospital on Saturday, Oct. 26.

This event is the second in a series of Celebrity Health Awareness Lectures and will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Woodlands Inn and Resort, Route 315, Wilkes-Barre.

In addition to Ms. Newman's speech, local physicians experienced in the diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer will provide participants with the most accurate data available about this disease, which currently strikes one in every nine women in the United States.

Participating physicians include Dan F. Kope, Karen Cooper, Ron Konecke, Gerald Levandoski, Jr., David W. Greenwald, Robert A. Rostock, Bruce H. Saidman and Norman Schulman. A videotape created by Marilyn Quayle, especially for this occasion will also be presented.

PHYLLIS NEWMAN

Phyllis Newman is a gifted actress, singer and comedienne. She underwent two mastectomies in the early 1980s and now tours the country carrying the message that a full recovery from cancer is possible.

Reservations are recommended for this free seminar, and are required for those intending to partake in the optional luncheon. For more information, please call Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Health Awareness Line at 288-8862.
