

Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Presents

“JUST IN TIME”

Celebrity Health Awareness Lecture
Second in a Series

featuring

Phyllis Newman

actress, singer, and comedienne

Saturday, October 26, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

at the Woodlands Inn and Resort

In an effort to provide extensive community education and awareness about breast cancer, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital will present an exciting and informative, complimentary seminar featuring Phyllis Newman, gifted actress, singer, and comedienne. The day promises to be an enlightening one as Phyllis shares her breast cancer experiences with unabashed honesty, sensitivity, and humor. During the session, local medical professionals will discuss current breast cancer issues, prevention, and options. Also, participants will be treated to a videotape presentation created specifically for this occasion by Marilyn Quayle.

Healthcare providers, women of all ages, and anyone interested in healthy living will benefit by attending this inspirational event. Reservations are suggested and can be made by calling Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Health Awareness Line at 288-8862.
