Dallas High School will hold financial aid program Dec. 4

The Dallas Senior High School Guidance Department is sponsoring a program concerning financial aid for all students planning to continue their education beyond high school, and their parents. This program is scheduled for Wednesday December 4, 1991, at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Patricia Russin, Counselor Coordinator, will moderate the program which includes the following:

A 20 minute financial aid video from the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) on grants and loans will be presented.

Ms. Jane Dessoye, Director of Financial Aid at College Misericordia will speak on College Based Financial Aid.

With the high cost of higher education, this is an extremely important meeting for parents to attend.

Lower School students design quilts

Children in grades one through four of the Wyoming Seminary Lower School in Forty Fort recently designed their own quilts as part of a group-oriented project. One quilt was designed by each of the grades in the primary division. They will hang in the foyer of the school as part of a semi-permanent display.

Wilkes Physics Club invites high school students to event

Lynn Baluh awarded scholarship at Clarion

Lynn Baluh has received a $650 Foundation Honor Scholarship from Clarion University for 1991-92. Baluh, a freshman, is the daughter of Francis and Helen Baluh, 17 Circle Drive, Dallas, and is a 1991 graduate of Dallas High School.

Foundation Honors Scholarships are presented to academically talented students who participate in the Honors Program. The recipients are selected on the basis of academic achievement and evidence of leadership and motivation. The scholarships are available for four years, providing the students maintain the academic standards required by the program.
