

Historical Society is selling its own Christmas card

The Wyoming Historical and Geological Society announces the release of the third annual limited edition Christmas Card.

The card depicts a group of kindergarten children in a snowy playground (which still exists) at the corner of Church and Main Streets in Edwardsville. The photograph, taken by Erskine Solomon in 1919, is part of the Society's Kingston Coal Company Collection. The card is black and white and measures five by six and one half inches. The inside message is "Season's Greetings.

Cards with envelopes are available in packages of 10 for $8. plus tax. The printing of these cards was made possible through the generous contributions of Corcoran Printing and Whiteman Tower, Inc. All proceeds benefit the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society. Cards may be purchased at the Museum gift shop, 69 S. Franklin St., and at the Bishop Library, 49 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre.

For more information, please contact the Society at 823-6244.
