Penn State offers job placement

Is your job at a dead end? Is it time for a change? Have you been laid-off because of the recession? Penn State alumni have a great resource for job searches. As a service to alumni, Penn State Wilkes-Barre has a job placement service that can help sharpen job skills and resume writing.

Joseph Kolesar, Coordinator of Job Placement and Counseling said, "Even though the recession has really put a damper on company hiring, there are organizations who are looking for qualified people."

Kolesar notes that the best thing to do when looking for a job, or changing a career, is to keep spirits high, to not take rejection seriously, and keep all possibilities open.

The job placement center at Penn State Wilkes-Barre can also be of service if you just aren't sure what your next step might be. The "Discover" system is a computer program that helps you identify the best options to match your skills, interests, and background.

For more information about the job placement center, give Joe Kolesar a call at 675-9215.

Lung Ass'n offers ski pass books

The American Lung Association of the Wyoming Valley is offering their annual Ski Privilege Pass Booklet for the 1991-92 ski season. The Association, with the cooperation of 10 area and Pocono ski slopes and three ski shops have coordinated this economical ski package for area residents.

The $30.00 ski booklet is limited in number. The 10 participating slopes are: Alpine Mountain, Blue Mountain, Camelback, Do Mountain, Elk Mountain, Fernwood, Montage, Mount Air, Lodge and Shawnee Mountain. There are also discounts offered at Strings and Skis, Sport Chalet Ski and Sail Center and Guenther's Ski Haus. Twenty-four individual coupons to these area slopes are included in each booklet with different days, times and ski offers. All coupons indicate when and where they are valid.

Bob Staub, Program Associate, indicated that the booklets are always a popular fundraising item. The cost of the booklet is easily recouped with only a few visits to the designated areas.

For more information and assistance in purchasing a ski booklet, call the American Lung Association at 823-2212 or send a $31.00 check (handling charge-$1.00) and a self-addressed stamped envelope to: ALA of the Wyoming Valley, 71 North Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701-1391. Anyone interested may also stop by the office Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

"Finding Toys for Our Son Was a Rocky Road... Until Allied."

"By adapting toys for children with disabilities, therapists and technicians at Allied Services John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, Wilkes-Barre Township, and its Rehabilitation Hospital, Scranton, make playtime fun and educational. Kids with special needs can even borrow uniquely adapted playthings from the Heinz Institute's toy lending library."

"Allied calls this free service the Holiday Toy Adaptation Program. Mike believes it's Santa's Workshop."
