

Citizens' Council will elect officers December 19

New officers and new members of the Back Mountain Citizens Council will be elected at the annual meeting December 19 at 7 p.m. in Hayfield House room 105 on the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre, according to Nancy Eckert, chairperson of BMCC. The public is invited to the meeting.

Murray Miller, head of the nominating committee, said the following persons were nominated as officers: Will Conyngham, president; Ray Boyle, vice president; Ben Phillips, secretary and Tom Winters, treasurer.

Nominees for the board of directors include the following: first-time members - Robert Besecker of Dallas Township; Dean Casidy of Dallas Borough; John Reddy and Mary Reddy of Jackson Township; Charles Wasserott III of Shavertown.

Nominees for re-election to the board include: Al Babetski of Lehman Twp.; Phyllis Belk of Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus; Ray Boyle of Harveys Lake Borough; Larry Law of Ross Twp.; Murray Miller of Jackson Twp. and Ann Vernon of Kingston Twp.

Other current members of the board who will continue serving include the following: Rick Allen, Dallas Twp.; Dr. Alan Boonin, Dallas Twp.; Susan Davis, Lehman Twp.; Dr. Pat DiPasquale, Dallas Twp.; Howard Grossman, Dallas Twp.; Janet Phillips, Kingston Twp.; Mark Santayana, C-TEC; Ed Schechter, Jackson Twp.; Irene Thomas, Lake Twp.; Jacqueline Williams, Dallas Twp.; Frank Zeske, Franklin Twp.; Rob Lewis, Lehman Twp.; and Eleanor Kandler Rodda, Jackson Twp.

The by-laws of the organization require a geographical balance among the nine communities of the Back Mountain. There are still several vacancies on the board. Miller said the nominating committee was also interested in hearing from persons willing to serve on the BMCC. Letters may be sent to him at 138 S. Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702.

Teen Lock-in Party will be held Dec. 31

Here's one for the Teens! Last of Fun for '91! One you'll remember because No Drugs - No Alcohol! This will be a four hour rock concert featuring local bands and a DJ from Q-102 at the Kingston 109th Army from 4 to 8 p.m. on December 31. This will be a "Lock-In" for teenagers from 13 to 19 only. Parents should plan to pick up their youngsters at 8 p.m.

The tickets will be $4 which include a free soda from the Snack Bar. The Snack Bar will have a full line of snack foods since the performance will run over the dinner hour. Tickets are available at Keefer's Jeans and More Stores, Gallery of Sound Stores, Bosco's and the 109th Armory in Kingston.

The response of the community after it was announced that the "Rock'n Lock-In" was cancelled provided for this change in format. The community is not willing to let the teenagers down when it comes to having a holiday celebration just for them. Other adult volunteers are still needed to chaperone the concert. The Committee hopes that the teens will come, have a wonderful time at their very own celebration, and then be content to go home to watch MTV and be safely home before adult activities for New Year's Eve begin.

The Community Advisory Committee includes representatives from the 109th Field Artillery Unit, Bosco's, Q-102 Radio, the Wyoming Valley Alcohol and Drug Services, and the Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council. This group was not willing to let the holidays go by without something just for the teens. They will evaluate the change in format early in the new year before deciding what will happen in 1992. In the meantime, adults willing to volunteer to serve as chaperones can call 829-2631 to sign up.
