Police report

DALLAS TOWNSHIP POLICE INVESTIGATE BURGLARY

Dallas Township police are investigating a burglary December 30 at the residence of Robert Kozlowski of Claude Street, Dallas. Police said that someone entered the home through a porch adjacent to the garage; the inside locked steel door was forced open. Several first floor rooms were ransacked, and a Sears VHS VCR and a tie clasp which had several gold nuggets mounted on it were removed, police said. The total value of the missing items is $900, according to the report.

Dallas Township Patrolman Robert Jolley, assisted by the Pennsylvania State Police Research and Identification Unit, investigated the incident.

Robert T. Rowland, 19, of Forest Road, Merrywood Hills, Mountain-top, told police he was driving a Volkswagen coupe south on Dug Road at about 3:45 p.m. and on slowing to negotiate a curve, felt the steering of the car lock.

According to police the car left between 30 and 40 feet of skid marks before it left the road. The car traveled 30 feet through a yard, struck a tree, glanced off of another tree, and rolled into a creek bed where it came to rest on its roof.

The passengers in the car were Robert Zanicky, 18, of Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, Chris Opalicki, 19, of Lower Demunds Road, Dallas, and Sean Lenahan, 19, of East Pettebone Street, Forty Fort.

Rowland and Lenahan were treated and released from General Hospital, while Zanicky and Opalicki were treated and released from Nesbitt Hospital, according to hospital spokespersons.

Rowland was cited for transporting intoxicating beverages, police said.

FOUR YOUTHS HURT AFTER CAR HITS ROCKS

Four Back Mountain teenagers were injured after the car they were traveling in hit two large rocks off of Hillside Road Saturday, January 4, police said.

Brian Joseph Jezuit, 16, of Harris Hill Road, told police he was driving a 1988 Dodge east on Hillside Road at about 9:43 p.m. when he swerved to avoid a vehicle coming toward him in his lane of travel.

The car left the road and hit two large rocks, police said.

Jezuit and passenger Ben Smith,

13, of Overbrook Road, Dallas, were treated and released from General Hospital. Passengers Brian Emershaw, 15, of Overbrook Road and Lenny Tarreto of Woodcliff Drive, Dallas, were treated and released from Nesbitt Hospital.

The four were taken to the hospitals by Kingston Township and Jackson Township ambulances, as well as Medic 1.

Investigating officers were Ptl. Frank Ziegler and Robert Weiss.

DUI ARRESTS UP; ACCIDENTS DOWN

Kingston Township police arrested a record number of drunk drivers in 1991, according to police chief Paul Sabol.

Sabol said that 54 people were arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol in 1991, while 46 people were arrested for drunk driving in 1990. In 1991, Kingston Township police also made 33 underage drinking arrests.

While drunk driving arrests have increased, Sabol reports that traffic accidents have declined steadily in the township in the last four years.

In 1991, there were 196 accidents, down from 240 in 1990; 253 in 1989; and 268 in 1988.

"I credit that to good enforcement on the highway," said Sabol. "We must be doing something right on the road."

HARVEYS LAKE CHARGED WITH DUI, OTHER OFFENSES

Stephen Francis Roesky, 31, of Laural Street, Plains Township, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol January 3, police said.

Police said that Roesky was observed driving south on Route 415 in an erratic manner, and that it took half a mile to pull him over. A breath test showed that Roesky's blood alcohol level was .322%. The state's legal limit for intoxication is .10%.

Roesky was also cited for careless driving and driving without insurance.

Arresting officer was assistant chief Ronald Spock.

CHARGED WITH DUI

Paul Weber, of RD 4, Wyoming, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol January 2, police said.

Weber was stopped on Lakeside Drive at about 1:54 a.m. According to police, his blood alcohol level was tested at .19%.

Arresting officer was Ptl. Wade Curtis.

STORE BURGLARIZED

DiVeronica's Store was burglarized early Saturday morning, January 4, police said.

Entry was made through the rear door and $100 in change was taken, police said. An inventory is being taken to see if anything else is missing.

Investigating officer is assistant chief Ronald Spock.

JEEP VANDALIZED

Jennifer Presper, of RD 4 Dallas, reported that her father's 1989 Jeep, which she parked along Old Lake Road, was vandalized between December 28 and 29.

Between 11 p.m. on December 28 and 2 a.m. December 29, both outside mirrors were torn from the jeep, and the radio antenna was bent, police said.

Investigating officer was Ptl. Mark Karlonis.
