Lehman school programs for 4-year-olds set for February

The Lake-Lehman School District announces the fourth installment of its pre-school program for parents and four-year-old children on February 25, 26 and 27. Featured on these dates will be an explanation of the screening procedure used by the School District, and "Nutrition and Health". The presentations will take place at the Ross Elementary School on February 25 from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.; at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School on February 26, from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.; and at the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School on February 27 from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Registration is requested by calling 477-5050 or 256-7897 for the Ross School; 639-1129 for the Lake-Noxen School; and 675-2165 for the Lehman-Jackson School. Activities will include storytime, play/game time, orientation to the school building and to buses, arts and crafts, and safety in the home. Parents and children are invited to be guests for lunch with the Kindergarten classes. The program is only intended for four-year-old children and their parents.

Dallas Middle School students collect pet food for the SPCA

The Dallas Middle School Student Council recently conducted its annual holiday SPCA food drive to benefit homeless animals. Dog and cat food, towels, cleaning items and money contributions were collected. This activity follows a highly successful Thanksgiving

Food Drive for the Back Mountain Food Bank. These annual activities are only a few of the community projects which the Dallas Middle School Student Council sponsors each year. The student council advisor is Norine Amesbury.

O'Reilly students attend District Orchestra

Two students from Bishop O'Reilly High School, Kingston, recently attended this year's District Orchestra competition at North Pocono High School. The girls were selected from more than 80 students in their instrument category. Guest conductor for this year's event was Porter Eidam.

Seminary scholarship competition will be Feb. 8

Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, will sponsor its 11th Trustee Achievement Scholarship competition on Saturday, Feb. 8. The competition will result in merit scholarships of varying amounts being awarded to five students who excel in academics, according to John R. Eidam, Dean of Admission.

Five scholarships will be awarded regardless of economic need. Recipients may also apply for financial aid if family circumstances warrant additional assistance.

The awards will be granted to the students who, in the judgment of the Trustee Achievement Scholarship committee, combine outstanding performance on a competitive examination with high qualities of citizenship and a strong record of academic achievement.

Any student entering ninth or 10th grade and not now enrolled in Wyoming Seminary Upper School may compete for the scholarships. Candidates interested in applying should contact the Admission Office, Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, 18704-3593 by letter or call 283-6060.

Candidates will then be asked to submit a scholarship application, participate in an interview before members of the scholarship committee and complete the February 8 examination.
