The Patons to play at Chicory House Jan. 24

On Friday, Jan. 24, the Chicory House in Wilkes-Barre will present a family concert with Sandy, Caroline and David Paton, who are among the most beloved and respected traditional folk artists performing today.

The nonprofit, volunteer-operated Chicory House, Northeastern Pennsylvania's only venue dedicated to presenting folk music, holds its coffeehouse concerts in the Community Room of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, South Franklin Street across from Boscov's in downtown Wilkes-Barre. To accommodate children's bed-times, this family concert with the Patons will begin an hour earlier than usual, at 7:30. Doors open at 7 p.m.

Sandy and Caroline Paton (pronounced "Pay-Ton") are accomplished folksingers, respected folklorists and directors of Folk-Legacy Records, one of the major traditional music labels. Along with their son David, they share rousing, funny, beautiful and evocative songs from throughout the English-speaking world. There's always plenty of audience participation.

The Patons with Sandy on guitar, have performed in hundreds of schools, for all age groups, and the response is invariably, instantly, enthusiastic. Among their own recordings they've made three especially for children: "I've got a Song," their first, was named one of the "20 best recordings for children" by the New York Public Library and was featured
