Old-style folk will come to the Chicory House Feb. 21

Call it "country music," "mountain music," "old-time" or "folk" music - Cathy Barton and Dave Para have devoted their lives to unearthing the musical treasures of their adopted Ozarks homeland and sharing the wealth with audiences all over the US and Europe. With their well-blended harmonies, their impressive instrumental skills, and a warm and intimate stage presence that radiates their love for what they do, the couple from Booneville, Missouri will be winning lots of friends for themselves and their music when they appear at the Chicory House in Wilkes-Barre, Friday, Feb. 21.

The nonprofit, volunteer-operated Chicory House, Northeastern Pennsylvania's only venue dedicated to presenting folk music, holds its coffeehouse concerts in the Community Room of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, South Franklin Street across from Boscov's in downtown Wilkes-Barre. The performance by Cathy Barton and Dave Para will begin at 8:30 p.m. Doors open at 8 p.m.

In their performing, Cathy and Dave have cultivated three major influences: the traditional tunes and songs from Missouri and the Ozarks, old-time and early country music, and contemporary folk music.

Cathy and Dave have made a number of records, including "Ballad of the Boonslick" and "On a Day Like Today," on the

CATHY BARTON AND DAVE PARA

Folk Legacy label. Chicago Magazine call "On a Day Like Today" "an extraordinary album," showing the "glories...of the folk harmony duo." The couple's recordings will be available at their Chicory House concert. Admission to the February 21 concert with Cathy Barton and Dave Para will be $6 at the door. There are no advance sales or reserved seats - table and other seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Desserts and beverages will be available for purchase.
