Lake-Lehman pre-school program will stress bus safety

The Pre-School Program for parents and pre-school (4-year old) children for the 1991-92 school year. The sixth and last installments of Lake-Lehman's Early Childhood/Pre-School Program are scheduled for April 28, 29 and 30, 1992 and will feature "Bus Safety and Orientation - Children will ride a bus."

Barbara Ross, District Transportation Director, will discuss with parents bus safety and orientation. In addition, a principal will be available to respond to parental questions concerning kindergarten. Children will work with kindergarten teachers on drawings and crafts.

For parents. Bus Safety and Orientation. Children will ride a bus:

April 28, Ross Elementary, 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m.; April 29, Lake-Noxen, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.; April 30, Lehman-Jackson, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

The activities for the children during these programs will include: a play/game time; a story time/ an orientation to the school building and special purpose rooms, i.e., Library, cafeteria, gym, health room, make and take/arts and crafts; safety in the home and neighborhood, and an orientation to busing. This program, activities for children and presentations to parents, has been highly successful in the previous seven years. The program recognizes the importance of the parent-school relationship and the powerful impact it has on early success and achievement of our children. Further, the program recognizes the importance of the parent as the child's first teacher.

Please register for the sixth presentation by calling the neighboring elementary school office and letting us know how many adults and children will be attending: Ross Elementary, 477-5050 or 256-7897; Lake-Noxen Elementary 639-1129 or Lehman-Jackson Elementary School, 675-2165.

The program is intended for four-year-olds only. It is kindly requested that you not bring younger brothers and sisters unless there is no alternative.

Gregory Nadzan will attend a state Leadership Seminar

Gregory C. Nadzan, a sophomore at Dallas Senior High School, has been chosen to attend 1992's Central Pennsylvania Leadership Seminar to be held May 14-17, at Lebanon Valley College, Annville. This local competition was open to high school sophomores. The criteria for selection consisted of evidence of emerging leadership ability, cooperation with fellow human beings, sensitivity to the needs of others, ability to relate to new pursuits and acquaintances, and the desire to learn and share knowledge and experiences with others.

The Central Pennsylvania Leadership Seminar is sponsored by the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation. The goal of the seminar is to provide a setting for young people to interact with recognized leaders in business, education, the arts, government and the professions.

Greg is president of the sophomore class and heads the steering committee. He is a former member of the track team, and is presently active in football and weight training. He has been the recipient of the American Legion Award, scholastic awards in business and English, and is an NEDT Certificate winner.

Greg is the son of Michael and Christine Nadzan of Dallas.

Joey Walko wins the Dallas Middle School Jane M. Stitzer Spelling Bee

Recently the annual Jane M. Stitzer Spelling Bee was held in the Dallas Middle School auditorium. Twenty five 6th, 7th and 8th grade students competed for top honors.

The contest was named to honor the memory of Mrs. Jane M. Stitzer, a former art teacher, who passed away in 1981. The competition reflects Mrs. Stitzer's commitment to excellence and hard work.

This year's winner was Joey Walko, a seventh grade student. Miss Walko is the daughter of Ms.

Marilyn Walko of College Manor, Dallas. Joey is an active member of the school chorus and likes to listen to music.

The first runner-up was sixth grade Dan Weller, son of Nancy and Dan Weller of Lincoln Drive, Shavertown. After many rounds Dan misspelled nocturnal. Joey spelled the word correctly and then won the contest by spelling minimization.

Joey will represent Dallas Middle School at the regional competition at Wilkes University.

Voula Tsoutsoplides admitted to pre-law honor society at Penn

Voula Tsoutsoplides of Shavertown was recently inducted into the John Marshall Pre-Law Honor Society at the University of Pennsylvania. Acceptance is determined by a student's grades, activities, and statement of purpose. Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.3 on a 4.0 scale.

The purpose of the honor society is to promote understanding of the legal profession and legal is-ssues. The group sponsors social events and educational activities, including an annual forum explaining the law school admissions test and how to prepare for it.

The society also hosts a variety of speakers. Last year Harvard law professor Alan M. Dershowitz spoke at Penn, at the invitation of the honor society. Dershowitz is perhaps best known for his role in the much-publicized von Bulow murder case.

Great music will be made elementary April 10

Dallas Elementary students from Mrs. O's (Marilyn O'Connell's) fifth grade music classes and Ms. Mary Ann Zezza's second grade will present a musical titled "Sis! Boom! Bah!" on Friday, April 10, at 7 p.m. on the Dallas Middle School Stage.

Weaving a chair

Richard Derby's craft classes at the Lake-Lehman High School have been learning to weave cane and splint seats for chairs. Derby started teaching how to make cane chair seats in the Spring of 1991 with the help of Judy Dawe of Lehman Township. Andy Demko, of Mountainview Barn Antiques in Sweet Valley has demonstrated Adirondak chair weaving to the students. Shown from left is Demko giving pointers on how to weave a pair of chair seats to Derby and student Jennie Gabel. (Post Photo/Eric Foster)
