Dallas High School will present 'The Matchmaker'

Dallas High School will present "The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder on Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. The comedy is the original version of the musical "Hello Dolly." Though exaggeration and broadly humorous situations, Wilder pokes fun at human foibles as well as old-fashioned playwrighting. However the play goes beyond mere comedy because it also deals with the aspirations of us all for a fuller, freer participation in life.

The play is directed by Donald Hopkins, assisted by Audrey Ide. The student staff includes stage manager Renee Egly, assisted by Trina Huynh and stage crew chief Libby Davies. Senior cast members include Kristen Gurdin as Dolly Levi, Andrea Shone as Mrs. Molloy, Emily Russin as Gertrude and Madame Rudolph, and Heather Mead as Miss Van Huysen.

The comedy has been a challenge for the crews as well as the actors. Students have had to provide four different settings ranging from a hat shop to a restaurant to two different living room scenes. The costume crew, under the direction of Miss Ide, has had to create costumes that reflect the mood of the 1880's. However, the efforts of the cast and crews are
